COUNTRY SADLY NEEDS RETURN TO DEMOCRACY

Republican Use of Office for Party Purposes Unprecedented in History.

EVERY GIFT FROM GOD CLAIMED AS REPUBLICAN

Former President, in Address to New York Business Men, Says Time Has Come for Patriotic Americans To End Present Regime.

New York, October 21.—Attracted by the presence of Grover Cleveland, thousands of people struggled to gain entrance to Carnegie hall tonight, where the former president of the United States made his first and only speech of the campaign.

John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury under Mr. Cleveland, also was a speaker and shared with Mr. Cleveland the great burst of enthusiasm at the meeting. Long before the doors of the hall were opened crowds surged around the outside of the building and within ten minutes after the doors had been thrown wide to the public every seat in the big auditorium was taken. Still hundreds were unable to gain entrance.

Mr. Cleveland arrived at the hall shortly after 8 o'clock and immediately upon his entrance cheers burst forth, the demonstration lasting seven minutes. It died out and began again with renewed vigor. When Mr. Cleveland saw that Mr. Robb's efforts were fruitless in quieting the demonstration, he held up his hand for silence, but the people could not be quieted for two full minutes afterward.

The former president was chairman of the meeting and began his speech at once, saying:

"There are at least two reasons why I am gratified by the opportunity to participate in this occasion. It permits me to breathe the pleasant atmosphere of resolute and harmonious democracy; and in addition it allows me to meet face to face in such an atmosphere those who largely represent the business interests of the city of New York and who besides are patriotic enough to recognize the obligation they owe to their country as well as to their business.

"It would be strange if I did not recall

MARINES OF UNITED STATES IN BATTLE WITH REBELS ON ISTHMUS OF PANAMA AND SEVERAL ARE REPORTED KILLED

CUSTOM HOUSE SEIZED BY THE UNITED STATES

Dominican Port Taken From Hands of Authorities of Black Republic.

St. Thomas, D. W. I., October 21.—A steamer from Puerto Plata, San Domingo, which has arrived her reports that the United States has seized the custom house at Puerta Plata. The Dominican consul here has no information of such seizure and discredits the report.

Washington, October 21.—The reported seizure by the United States of the custom house at Puerta Plata, presumably arises from the already accomplished or contemplated occupation of that port by an American designated by the commission which awarded to the Santo Domingo Improvement Company $4,500,000 damages against Santo Domingo.

That award was automatically self-executing and provided that if Santo Domingo failed to pay the award the agent named by the commission was to take charge of four of the customs ports of the island and apply 60 per cent of the revenues to the payment of the claims.

The affair is not one in which the United States government is interested except in the contingency that the government of Santo Domingo fails entirley to meet its obligations to the improvement company, and then only to the extent of seeing that its interests shall not suffer through such neglect.

The officials say no forcible intervention by the government of the United States is contemplated at this time.

MOTHER SLAYS DAUGHTER'S BEAU

Mrs. Lofley Shot and Killed Joe Wood Yesterday.

Tampa, Fla., October 21.—Last night Mrs. Lofley, who lives near De Soto park, shot and killed Joe Wood, who, it is alleged, was paying too marked attention to her young daughter after having been repeatedly warned to keep away from the premises.

He was found there last night by the mother of the girl, and she put an end to his life with a revolver.

Wood was tried for bigamy some two years ago, convicted and served part of his time, when he was pardoned.

Clash Occurred Near Culebra Where the Malcontents Have Been in Camp.

PANAMA THREATENED BY CULEBRA RISING

Colon, October 21.—News reached here this evening that about 200 armed men who are thought to be malcontent Panamanians, rather than Columbians, have been active in the neighborhood of Culebra, threatening hostilities against the Panama government.

As soon as the American authorities of the canal zone became cognizant of the appearance of this force marines were sent out to ascertain their purpose.

It is rumored that a skirmish occurred inland, in which several were killed, but there is no confirmation of this report.

Heavy Force on Isthmus.

Washington, October 21.—Assistant Secretary Darling tonight said that so far as he was aware no advices had been received at the navy department of the reported skirmish between United States marines and Panamans on the isthmus.

At this time the navy has about 450 marines on the isthmus, a sufficient force, in the opinion of the administration, to cope with any difficulty which is likely to develop.

DISMISSAL FOR Captain Hitch SUSPENSION FOR Lieut. Mell REPRIMAND FOR Lieut. Griner

For Allowing Mob at Statesboro To Burn the Negroes, Cato and Reed, Convicted of Murdering Hodges Family

CAPT. HITCH DISMISSED FROM SERVICE OF STATE

MELL SUSPENDED ONE YEAR; GRINER TO BE REPRIMANDED

Sentences of Court Approved by Governor Terrell and Orders Carrying Them Out Will Be Issued at Once—Cone adn Morrison Acquitted.

First Lieutenant Charles A. Cone, company A, First infantry, G. S. T., and First Lieutenant A. A. Morrison, not guilty.

HITCH MAY SEEK RELIEF THROUGH CIVIL COURTS

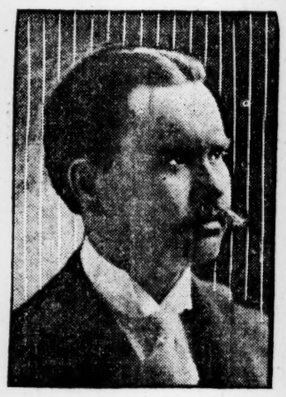

SAVANNAH, GA., October 21.—(Special.)—Captain Hitch and Lieutenant Mell refuse to discuss the findings of the courtmartial, each saying:

"I have nothing to say at present."

The feeling here is that the finding in the case of Captain Hitch was harsh. There are rumors of some relief being sought through the civil courts, but just what course might be taken was not stated. The effect of the sentences of Captain Hitch and Lieutenant Mell on the Oglethorpe Light Infantry, of which they were the senior commanding officers, is a matter of conjecture.

It was reported some weeks ago that a round robin was circulated pledging the signers to withdraw in case the findings were unfavorable to Captain Hitch. This was held up until the sentiments of Captain Hitch could be ascertained.

It is certain that he will disapprove any such course. The discharge of Captain Hitch without modifying words debars him from holding state or municipal office. The suspension does not effect in any way Lieutenant Mell, who is employed in the city fire department as clerk.

CAPTAIN R. M. HITCH, Who Will be Dismissed from the Service of the State as a Result of the Findings of the Statesboro Court Martial.

WILL ISSUE CALL TO NATIONS.

Roosevelt Will Ask Powers To Suggest Suitable Date.

Washington, October 21.—In the course of two days the president will dispatch formal invitations to the powers to name delegates to the new peace conference to be held at The Hague. The powers are invited to suggest a date or dates for the meeting of the conference. Secretary Hay submitted a draft of the invitation to the cabinet today.

The date of the meeting was left open, because it was stated that any of the powers has as much right to suggest a date as the United States. Consequently there must be considerable correspondence on this subject before an agreement is reached. It is not expected that the conference will meet during the continuance of the present war unless this should continue indefinitely.

There had been bad feeling between the parties prior to this incident. One of Lundy's negro hands had a pistol and in some way took part in the fight and was killed. It is reported that Butler and Lundy are both wounded, but not seriously.

FARROW IS REMOVED, SO ASHLEY DECLARES

Postmaster at Gainesville Is Said To Have Been Beheaded Yesterday.

ASHLEY DEPOSED HIM FROM CHAIRMANSHIP

According to Telegrams Received at Gainesville from Ashley, Farrow, Who Fought Ashley in His Recent Race, Has Been Removed.

Gainesville, Ga., October 21.—(Special.) Telegrams were received here tonight by Mayor Howard Thompson and Judge James B. Gaston from James M. Ashley, at Washington, D. C., saying that he had Colonel Henry P. Farrow, postmaster at Gainesville, removed from office by wire.

At 10 o'clock tonight Colonel Farrow had received no notice of his removal from the department at Washington. He was asked for a statement, but declined to say anything until he had been notified of his dismissal by the postoffice department.

The removal of Colonel Farrow does not come as a surprise here. During the campaign for the republican nomination for congress in this, the ninth, district, Colonel Farrow vigorously fought Ashley, because of the latter's short-time residence in this state; in fact, Colonel Farrow charged that he was not a citizen of Georgia, and could not legally be seated were he elected.

He broadcasted over the district a certain terms and declared that the nomination should go to one who had been aligned with the party in this state for some years whose nomination would not be open to vulnerable attacks from the democrats.

Had Farrow Deposed.

By overriding the old-line leaders of the party in the district and excluding the negroes from the convention Ashley was not only nominated, but Colonel Farrow, who was chairman of the republican executive committee of the district, was removed, together with Ed Puett, of Forsyth, the secretary of the committee, and Colonel Farrow's friend. Immediately after Ashley's nomination, he preferred charges against Colonel Farrow and a postoffice inspector was sent here to investigate the same. The only charge he found to be true was that Colonel Farrow had remained away at different times from the office longer than the law allowed. Through the instrumentality of friends, Colonel Farrow was permitted to answer the charges, his reasons for absence being the illness and death of his wife. Mr. Bristow declared the answer was satisfactory to the department in every way and the charges were dismissed.

It is now charged that Ashley, in order to catch Colonel Farrow, had mailed at this office, or caused to pass through this office, letters under cover of a congressman's frank containing not only a public document, but Ashley's printed letter of acceptance and an autograph letter from a Habersham county citizen as well.

It is now charged that these letters were mailed here and bore no postmark.

Colonel Farrow was appointed postmaster by President McKinley in December, 1897, and reappointed in 1901. His term of office would, therefore, not expire until December, 1905.

HEFLIN CLAIMS LILY WHITE VOTE

Alabama Congressman Feels Assured of Their Support.

Montgomery, Ala., October 21.—(Special.)—Congressman J. Tom Heflin, of Lafayette, and Hon. John W. Overton, democratic elector for the fifth district, who lives at Wedowee, were in the city this morning. Mr. Heflin says he has been assured the lilly white republicans of the district will vote for him and all of the populists who have not come back into the democratic party. He is receiving ovations wherever he goes and will carry his district, he says, by an overwhelming majority. "In spite of every opposition to me I will receive," says Mr. Heflin, "a vote so large as to be a vindication of my course and a rebuke to those who are trying to defeat me."

HUMAN RIGHTS NOW THE ISSUE

Money Question Insignificant in Comparison, Says Bryan.

Nebraskan Yesterday Began His Two Days' Tour of West Virginia—Was Welcomed at Parkersburg by Davis. Answers Cannon.

Parkersburg, W. Va., October 21.—W. J. Bryan began his two days' campaign in West Virginia for the national democratic ticket here this afternoon.

Henry G. Davis, who has been waiting here since yesterday to welcome the Nebraskan, was the first to extend his hand as Mr. Bryan alighted from the train at 3:30 o'clock.

In his speech Mr. Bryan stood for the principles of government and democracy on which he made his two campaigns of 1896 and 1900. He declared with emphasis that he had given up nothing of these beliefs, for the present democratic pplatform gave him more of them than any other platform. Impearialism received more attention than any other subject touched upon.

He had been asked how, as a believer in silver, he could vote for a candidate who believed in gold. His answer had been weighed in the balance with the questions that have arisen within the last year, "Human rights and the declaration of independence make the money question seem small and insignificant."

Speaker Cannon, he said, was referring to the assistance Bryan had rendered in securing the ratification of the Spanish peace treaty. In this reference, he said, Mr. Cannon was entirely overlooking the amendment which Mr. Bryan had also supported, placing the Filipinos on exactly the same basis as the Cubans.

COUNTRY SORELY NEEDS RETURN TO DEMOCRACY

at this moment with deep sensibility the days in the past and the previous political campaigns when I knew what it was to have the generous support of the business men of New York and if I did not remember in these surroundings the sustaining power of their approval and confidence amid the perplexing labors of high official duty. You will not, I know, accuse me of self-conceit if I assume that I am with those tonight who demand of me no explanation or apology for the manner in which I have served either my party or the business interests of my country and who will neither discredit nor distrust me when I avow my intense anxiety for the success in the pending political campaign of the principles and nominees of the reunited democracy.

Country Needs Democracy.

"My attachment to the party which won my early allegiance has been intensified with passing years because I have found in the principles from which genuine democracy has derived its life and vigor, safe guidance and constant inspiration, when as a public servant I owed to my fellow countrymen patriotic effort and unsparing devotion to the people's trust.

"But the principles and best traits of the democratic party reach their highest importance and value at such a time as this, when our people are tempted by glittering delusions and when they are offered the kingdoms of the world if they will but throw themselves down and worship the god of Mammon.

"I believe we have fallen upon days when, more than ever, the enforcement of democratic doctrine and the acceptance of democratic conservatism and steadiness are needed, if our national greatness and the well being of our people are to be put beyond jeopardy.

"In a country like ours, where parties contest for the direction of the government we must, of course, expect party advocacy and honorable personal ambitions for political honors, but who, among those indulging in the farthest retrospect of political campaigns can recall one in which the advantages of the present party control have been so palpably and unblushingly used for its perpetuation or in which the functions belonging to the entire American people have been more insolently forced to do partisan service? When before has it been so distinctly claimed that all the virtues, all the patriotism and all the governing ability of our citizenship are found among the members of one political party, and when before have those of our citizens, not among the chosen, been so boldly considered as aliens in their own land, who should be cast into outer political darkness as unworthy to be entrusted with the power and responsibility of a government established by the people and for the people? When in all our history has a party so presumptuously as now claimed to be the donors of the gifts of God or when has one so persistently plumed itself upon the creation of all the prosperity that has fallen to our country's lot?

Republican Arrogance.

"Such arrogance is not new to the party which now seeks at the hands of the people renewal of our government's control; but it has so grown by what it has fed upon as now shamelessly to assume that the time has arrived when popular heedlessness or dullness will permit boasting and reckless assertion to pass for truth and reason. If this assumption is justified there can be no doubt that the sober and responsible political thought and watchfulness upon which the true intent and purpose of our government depends, are in grievous peril. If, on the other hand, this assumption is viciously unwarranted, it is an insult to American manliness which should arouse prompt and effective resentment.

"Never before have our people been so belabored with party deliverances, which, in every line and every word, from platform declarations to the last appeal of party advocacy, are so saturated with conceited and tiresome claims of infallibility, and with supercilious disdain of all political efforts except such as are attempted under the banner of republicanism. Shall this pass current at a time when, at the parting of the ways in our nation's development we are especially called to patriotic thoughtfulness and careful contemplation of party designs and to a vigilant watch against dangers that beset us? My faith in my countrymen will not permit me to believe this, or to doubt that they will insist upon examining for themselves the accounts of party stewardship.

"They know that their country's prosperity, like the rains of heaven, should be distributed among all the people in every station of life; and they will challenge the claim of a party which boasts of a prosperity it has wrought which gives to its pampered favorites added opportunities to increase their riches, while the poor and those who toil wait like Lazarus, to be fed from the crumbs which fall from the rich man's table

Republican Claims Punctured.

"The party will be given just credit, which, early or late, has endeavored to safeguard the soundness of the nation's currency, but the people will reject as savoring of presumption the insistence that only those belonging to one party organization can claim to be the protectors and defenders of our financial integrity, nor will they forget that the fight was hotly on when many of the leaders of the party now making such an insistence were worse than luke-warm in the cause.

"A party may indulge in self-congratulation when it has effectively defended the people in their daily life from the rapacity of trusts and combinations, which thrive as private enterprise is strangled and which grow fat as by their control of the cost of living, they cause the homes of our land to grow lean, but the people will hardly approve the vociferous pride which claims that a successful attack upon the merger of the stock of certain competing railroads has rescued them from their oppressors. They will not fail to observe that the huge combinations which directly injure them still flourish, and they may also recall how the consternation among those implicated in such schemes who once feared a general pursuit was quieted when the soothing assurance reached them that the government did not intend to 'run amuck.' Nor will they probably accept the suggestion that repentance or a change of heart accounts for the manner by which the threats and animosity of many powerful trust magnates have been displaced by their approval and substantial support of the party which seeks to convince the people of its trust destroying proclivities.

As to Protection.

"This item of the account will not be passed over without a reference to the platform statement that 'protection which guards and develops our industries, is a cardinal policy of the republican party,' nor without noting the declaration of the candidate standing on this platform that the protective tariff policy ought now to be considered as dennitely established. The question will be asked, which are the American industries that at this time are in need of the shelter of such a tariff as that now in force? And is there never to be a time when American enterprise, American ingenuity and American opportunity will free our industries from their stage of infancy and permit American self-reliance to cast away the leading strings of a 'definitely established' protective policy? The people know that this policy has given rise to reckless greed and to worship of gain, menacing patriotic sentiment and our love for high standards of national greatness, and they know that at best it lays burdens on the consumers of our land.

"With these tendencies and these burdens in mind they will ask the party professing its anxiety to restrain or destroy harmful combinations, why a protective tariff policy should be considered definitely established, which, in addition to its other sins, contributes to a situation that permits a combination or monopoly to sell abroad articles of our manufacture at lower prices than are exacted from our own citizens at home. They will see the sheer wrongfulness of this condition so clearly and they will so firmly believe that in this way they are made to bear tariff burdens in order that they may be discriminated against in favor of foreign consumers, that they will not be satisfied with the assurance that the tariff has nothing to do with trusts. They will consign such an explanation to the limbo of negation, to take its place with the outworn deception that the foreign exporter pays our tariff taxes, and with two other sadly weak pretences, one that the tariff should be reformed only by its friends, and the other that the party which believes that a protective tariff ought to be considered as definitely established, loves reciprocity in trade.

In the Philippines.

"When the platform boast is made that in the Philippines we have suppressed insurrection, established order and given to life and property a security never known there before,' the confession will be extorted that the insurrection suppressed was no more than the crushing out of resistance to the army of the United States, while engaged in the subjugation of a people thousands of miles from our shores, whom an incident of war undertaken by us in aid of those struggling for liberty and independence in another quarter had put within our power; and that the people will ask under what sanction was this subjugation entered upon by a nation pledged to the doctrine that all just powers of government are derived from the consent of the governed, and they will deny that imperialism and our forcible rule of foreign people have any place among the purposes of our national life.

Panama Affair Disgrace.

"When credit is claimed for securing a route for a long desired interoceanic waterway it will not be in a carping spirit that the people will look at the incidents accompanying this achievement. They do not undervalue the object gained, but they keenly appreciate the importance and value of our national honor, our national good name, and, above all, our national morality.

"Not even the great worth of the thing accomplished will close the eyes of thoughtful Americans to the fact that in reaching the results we have exhibited such international ruthlessness and such selfish international immorality as have lastingly debilitated our reputation for good faith and established a precedent, which, in time to come, may be invoked to justify the most startling and reprehensible abandonment of the high ideals which have made us an example of the best civilization—a people happy as we are intelligently free, strong as we are scrupulously just, and everywhere trusted and honored as we undeviatingly follow in the way of uprightness and rectitude.

"I have ventured to suggest the misleading purpose of the vain-glorious claims made by a party organization which seeks a continuance of political control, and to intimate the humiliating estimate of our people's intelligence and patriotic vigilance which the exploitation of these claims involve. It is surely not narrow partisanship which prompts me to entreat my countrymen to hold fast and sure their independence of thought and their courage in judgment; nor do I speak in a tone of partisanship when I beg them to remember that the true greatness and glory of our nation cannot safely rest upon wealth which finds its way to the few at the expense of the many; nor upon such material success as contaminates the purity or blunts the potency of patriotism; nor upon expansion in disregard of our national mission and intent; nor upon achievements that put in question our national morality. Above all, greater than all guarding and protecting all and fostering everything that American patriotism should covet, are the services and devotion to country of a sincere people who believe that, if their government is preserved in its simplicity and defended against perversion its blessings of happiness, contentment and true prosperity will in bounteous measure visit every corner of our land.

Candidates Personify Doctrines.

"I do speak, however, as a democrat attached to democratic principles, and anxious for the ascendancy of my party, when I congratulate the democracy of our country upon the clear and satisfying statements in our party platform and upon the manner in which its doctrines are personified by our candidates.

"We pledge to our countrymen, through our platform, rest, genuine prosperity, safety and a return to the way marked out by the constitution; and we promise, through our candidates, that if it is the people's will, our platform shall be carried out and that under our governmental management democratic conservatism and care shall rule the national councils to the exclusion of rash impulse and spectacular demonstration.

"I desire to congratulate you, my old neighbors, and the citizens of what I love to call my old state, upon the fact that what Alton B. Parker is and what he represents in the nation, D. Cady Herrick is, and represents, in your state. The time has arrived when there is needed at the head of your state government a man as able, as fearless and as incorruptible as I know your candidate for governor to be.

"Let us hope that the day is near when all our people, having a correct appreciation of the value of a free institution which God has vouchsafed to them, and animated by the spirit of true patriotism, may see their highest duty in continually guarding and defending these institutions against the decay which comes of neglect, the weakness which comes of undermining materialism and the perversion which comes of disobedience to the laws of our national life and health."

PARKER RALLY AT HARTFORD

Mr. Smith, of Atlanta, Tells Why Roosevelt Should Be Defeated.

Hartford, Conn., October 21.—At a democratic rally here tonight Hoke Smith, of Georgia, was one of the speakers. After dwelling on republican extravagance, Roosevelt's defiance of law and the Panama episode, Mr. Smith said:

"It is not my desire to dwell upon the sectional attitude of the republican party and its candidate for president. Surely there can be no sectional prejudice at Hartford. In the city of Atlanta, where I live, you cannot enter one of the large office buildings without meeting the announcement that within you will find the representative of some Hartford company. Your insurance and manufacturing companies have southern headquarters there, and from the size of their apartments and the number of their employees the volume of their business with us must be large.

"Our heads of families insure with you for the protection of their wives and children. Our property owners rely upon you in case of loss from fire. We trust you. We ask your confidence in us.

The Negro Problem.

"We have a serious local problem from the presence of 8,000,000 negroes, a large percentage of whom are ignorant, not always disposed to work and sometimes lawless. We have handled our problem, not without occasional conflicts between the races, but we have handled it with far less bloodshed than that which marked the records of our fathers in connection with the Indians.

"The majority of the negroes require constant aid and direction from their white neighbors. This aid and direction is necessary because very many of the negroes must depend in their daily lives upon the superior intelligence of the white race. Any effort to force equality tends to break down a relation more necessary to the negro than to the white man.

"I can hardly expect you to see it just as we do, but I would have you know that $100,000,000 of taxes have been voluntarily paid during the last thirty years by the white people of the south to help educate the negroes, and I would also remind you that nothing keeps the negroes in the south except the fact that there they find better treatment and larger opportunities than in any other portion of the union.

"President Roosevelt has disturbed the kindly relations which have existed between the two races. While the administration of the beloved and lamented Mc. Kinley did much to allay race and sectional prejudice, President Roosevelt has done much to inflame both. I fear still further harm if he is elected.

"Our country is united in hopes and aspirations. Each state contributes to all of the others. If the south is injured we who live there will suffer most you who do business will suffer much, and our whole country will suffer. It cannot be that you cherish animosities after forty years. Beneath the Stars and Stripes sons of New England and sons of the south, side by side, shed their blood in the Spanish war. We turn our faces to the future only with a generous rivalry to see who can best serve his country and his fellow countrymen.

"We must give support to the party which presents to you the conservative and wise politics of Jefferson and Jackson, of Lincoln and Tilden, of Hubbard and Cleveland, the party of Parker and Davis."

"Power" Steel Cables Took Grand Prize.

St. Louis, October 21.—As a fitting climax to the innumerable expressions of admiration made by visitors regarding the unique and beautiful exhibit of the Broderick & Bascom Rope Co., St. Louis, this company was yesterday awarded Grand Prize at the world's fair for the superior quality of its power wire ropes and cables and for the skill and artistic ability displayed in installing its exhibit. The products of the house of Broderick & Bascom have invariably given such wear and service that this company now supplies the largest corporations, traction companies, etc., in America.

FIGURES PROVE PARTY'S WASTE

No Proof of Extravagance Needed, Says Parker.

Democratic Nominee for Presidency Answers Taft's Call for Bill of Particulars with Facts About Republicans' Extravagance.

Esopus, N. Y., October 21.—Judge Parker today addressed a delegation from Hudson Co., New Jersey, on the subject of administrative extravagance, answering a speech made by Secretary of War Taft in which the secretary calls on the democrats to give a bill of particulars in connection with their charge that economy in government affairs had been forgotten in the years the republicans have been in control of national affairs.

Judge Parker quoted a few totals from official reports which he asserted not only raised the presumption of extravagance but proved it. A bill of particulars will be given, he said, when a democratic administration gets a chance at the books.

From midnight until after noon today rain fell in torrents. Streams overflowed and the roads were converted into brooks and made nearly impassible for pedestrians. Nevertheless, the New Jersey delegations formed a procession at the Esopus station of the West Shore railroad and marched to Rosemount.

Democrats Disregarded Rain.

It had been the intention of the organizers of the trip to have two special trains of sixteen coaches each and a party of 2,000 persons. The trains were to leave Jersey City at 10 o'clock and arrive at Esopus at noon. At 10 o'clock rain was falling in sheets at Jersey City and few democrats had arrived at the trains. An hour later a delegation sufficient to fill ten coaches had arrived and unmindful of the deluge determined to pay their visit to the candidate despite the certainty of a mud bath at the Esopus end of their journey.

Reaching Judge Parker's house the delegation surrounded the veranda. Though the rainfall had ceased, the trees were dripping and umbrellas had to be raised. When Judge Parker stepped from the house he was greeted by cheers and hand-clapping.

The New Jersey delegation was presented to Judge Parker by Representative Allen Benny, of Bayonne, who made a short address. Judge Parker said:

"The expenditures of the government, say the administration, have been managed in a spirit of economy as far removed from waste as from niggardliness.

"We asserted that only seven years ago and under a democratic president the total expenses of this government were less than $366,000,000, and we charged that in the last fiscal year the expenditures were over $582,000,000. These figures have not been denied and they cannot be. Deducting from the latter amount the sum paid by this government for the Panama canal and the Panama canal rights, we still have $532,000,000. After making that deduction, we find that it cost about $166,000,000 more to run the government last year than it did seven years ago.

Wants Proof of Economy.

"That statement on its face raises the presumption of extravagance and waste, a presumption which requires evidence to overcome. None has been presented. By way of indirect answer to the democratic charge of extravagance, the inquiry has been put by the administration whether we propose to cut off the pensions? We answer, certainly not. And we further assert that the inference suggested by the question is not ingenious.

"The amount paid out in pensions has been decreasing every year since 1890. But for the unwarranted order No. 78, which was fully considered in my letter of acceptance—the amount paid for pensions in the seventh preceding year would have exceeded the amount paid last year. As it was, the difference was only $1,500,000. It is therefore necessary for the administration to look in other directions than the disbursement for pensions for the justification of the excess of expenditures of last year over that of seven years ago, of over $166,000,000.

"Inquiry is further made by the administration whether we would dare to reduce the cost of the army. We answer that most assuredly we would and we ask the people to decide between the administration and the democratic contention on that point. In the year 1897 the war department cost less than $49,000,000, which was about the average cost per year for the preceding twenty-six years. This last year, a year of peace, the cost of the army was $115,000,000. One of the questions we now ask the people is:

"What is the use of spending more than double on the army now than we deemed wise to spend previous to the Spanish-American war?

"I have on another occasion referred to the waste of money in the Philippines, putting the cost to us at $650,000,000, in addition to the $20,000,000 paid to Spain for the opportunity of taking its place in wasting lives and money on the Philippines, asserting not a dollar of it will ever come back to us. The answers so far have betrayed a desire to destroy the effect the statement should have. To that end, an issue is attempted to be made as to the amount expended.

"Edward Atkinson, whose fame as a statistician is secure in the confidence of his countrymen, in a letter to The New York Times, of October 4, 1904, estimates the cost to the United States at $200,000 a year, and the probable cost to date at $1,200,000,000. His letter should be read by every voter. The vast sums thus expended some out of the pockets of the tax-payers. Not a dollar of it will be returned to them, and it is for them to determine whether they are willing to have their money expended in support of such a policy. If they are, then other islands and other countries may be added to our possessions, until their cost of maintenance compels every worker in this country to support a soldier and his family, as well as himself and his own family.

CLEVELAND ON JUDGE PARKER AND LODGE ON ROOSEVELT

No Presidential Pyrotechnics Are To Be Expected from New York Jurist.

New York, October 21.—Former President Grover Cleveland, in McClure's for November, gives his personal estimate of Judge Parker as a candidate for president. He says of him in part:

"We sometimes find features of character so prominently visible in a man's mental organization that, like the features of his countenance, they need no proof of their existence. This is preeminently true of Judge Parker's intent deliberation in reaching conclusions and his inherent judicial conservatism. These qualities of his mind are so distinctly apparent that they are at once seen and known by all who gain the slightest knowledge of the man. This should make it thoroughly understood that those who love presidential pyrotechnics must look elsewhere.

"I have known Alton B. Parker for more than twenty years. He impressed me on our first acquaintance as a sincere, honest, and able man; and this impression has, with time and observation, grown to clear and undoubting conviction. I am sure that I venture nothing in making the positive assertion that the guiding trait of his character is his constant and unyielding devotion to duty.

"Judge Parker's experience in judicial investigation, added to his natural aptitude in the same direction, ought to satisfy the most cautious and exacting of his abundant ability to discover in the light of constitutional requirements, and in the atmosphere of enlightened but conservative Americanism, the manner in which a president should best serve his countrymen.

"I am persuaded that the American people will make no mistake if they place implicit reliance in Alton B. Parker's devotion to duty, in his clear perception of the path of duty, in his steadfast persistency against all temptation to leave the way where duty leads, and in his safe and conservative conceptions of presidential responsibilities."

Most Many - Sided and Typical American Shown in Reigning President.

New York, October 21.—In McClure's, for November, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge gives a glimpse of President Roosevelt as he sees him. He says of him:

"No man has lived the life of his time so amply as he; no one has shown humanity in so many phases, no one has wider sympathies or so many interests. It would be worse than idle for any one, no matter how intimate his knowledge, to fancy that he could depict a character so many sided, so tried and tested in such multiform experiences within the space allowed me here. His daily life does not differ in any respect from that of any other busy man of great energy, who finds rest and relief not only in active out-of-door life, but in a wide and constant reading of books—a habit, by the way, quite as characteristic as any others, but of which the newspaper critics and humorists tell us little.

"Therodore Roosevelt apprehends very quickly. When he has thought a subject out thoroughly and knows what he means to do, he acts promptly. When, after full consideration, he has made up his mind as to what is right, he is unbending; but no man has been in the white house for many years who is so ready to take advice, who has made up his mind more slowly, more deliberately, and after more consultation than Theodore Roosevelt.

"Every nation, or rather every historic race, has certain attributes in addition to the great and more obvious virtues which it believes to be peculiarly its own, and in which it takes an especial pride. We of the United States like to think of the typical American as a brave man and an honest man, very human, with no vain pretense to infallibility. We would have him simple in his home life, democratic in his ways, with the highest education that the world can give, kind to the weak, tender and loyal and true, never quarrelsome, but never afraid to fight; with a strong, sane sense of humor, and with a strain of adventure in the blood which we shall never cease to love until those ancestors of ours who conquered a continent have drifted a good deal further into the past than is the case today. These are the qualities which all men admire and respect, and which thus combined we like to think peculiarly American. As I enumerate them I describe Theodore Roosevelt."

OFFICERS SLAIN BY OUTLAWS

of a house of Pine street and the men who the detectives sought to arrest are suspected of being implicated in a train robbery at Centralia, Ills., a few weeks ago. The house had been under police surveillance for several days.

A few minutes before the fight occurred, Vaughn left the house and started to walk down Pine street. The detectives closed in on him after he had gone some distance from the house and he was arrested.

Accompanied by their prisoner, the detectives returned and entered the house. Shea, McCluskey and Dwyer were leading; Boyles and James were behind the prisoner.

Hardly had the detectives entered the room in which Rose and Blair were seated, when they were met with a volley of shots from a heavy caliber revolver. Shea sank to the floor at the first shot and Dwyer followed almost instantly. By that time the detectives had drawn their revolvers and there was a deafening exchange of shots for several moments.

During the excitement Vaughn endeavored to escape from his captors and assist Rose and Blair. Boyle and James, however, clubbed revolvers and beat their prisoner over the head till he was unconscious, and then went to the aid of Shea, Dwyer and McCluskey, the latter having in the meantime sunk to the floor with a dangerous wound in the stomach.

Several hours after being taken to the hospital Detective Thomas Dwyer died. It was stated then by the physicians that it was feared Detective McCluskey and C. C. Blair could not live.

VOTE ON CANON DELAYED A DAY

The Election of Rev. Albion Knight Confirmed by Deputies.

Boston, October 21.—The only important piece of legislation adopted at the Episcopal general convention today was a resolution in the house of deputies, which provides for special forms of worship to meet the requirements of foreign congregations, which might be brought into the church. The proposition was bitterly fought at the San Francisco convention and met with considerable opposition here, many claiming that the measure would lead to great diversity forms in worship. The resolution will be acted upon by the house of bishops.

The house of bishops considered the amendment to the divorce canon, placing further restrictions upon the remarriage of innocent persons in a divorce for infidelity, which was adopted by the deputies yesterday as a compromise, but after discussing the issue in secret for two hours and a half, a vote was deferred until tomorrow.

W. W. Skiddy, of New York, was re-elected treasurer of the general convention.

In executive session the house of deputies elected missionary bishops as follows:

Bishop of Salt Lake, Rev. Frank S. Spalding, of Erie, Pa.; bishop of Yan Kow, China, Rev. Lon H. Roots, of Hankow, formerly of Arkansas; bishop of Mexico, Rev. Henry D. Aves, of Houston, Tex; bishop of Cuba, Rev. Albion W. Knight, of St. Phillip Cathedral, Atlanta, Ga.

Bladder Diseases Promptly Cured.

It is folly to suppose that these so called "kidney cures" will cure bladder trouble, though they are generally advertised for this purpose. And neither will a remedy intended for rheumatism do it. These are distinct and separate diseases, and Dr. J. Newton Hathaway, the noted Specialist, treats each case according to its requirements. That his method is the right way, is attested by his excellent success, in this class of diseases, including in fact all the diseases of a uric acid nature. You cannot find a better treatment than the doctor has for cystitis, inflammation of the bladder, too frequent desire to urinate, retention of the urine, enlargement of the prostate, bedwetting, diabetes, Bright's disease and all other diseases which interfere with urinary functions. In gravel, stone in the bladder, uric acid, calculi, etc., the doctor has been especially successful. Men and women having such diseases are invited to call on Dr. Hathaway for free examination and advice. He will tell you just what is the matter with you and how best to cure it. If you decide to take treatment, the charge will be a very reasonable one, and he will try to cure you in as short a space of time as possible. He has a booklet on the subject of urinary diseases, which he will gladly send to distant patients. Write for it, it is free. His specialty also includes all Chronic Diseases of Men and Women. If you live too far away to call, write him for booklet on your special disease, and also symptom blank. WAITING ON WEATHER TO DRY BATTLE FIELD

STATION AT SHAKHE HELD BY JAPANESE

Reserves of Fifth Siberian Corps Put on Front by Kuropatkin To Relieve Battle-Worn Troops—Outpost Fighting Continuously.

MUKDEN, October 21.—The Russians on Thursday opened an artillery fire upon Shakhe station, where there was a Japanese force. Guns were then trained on the village of Lamatung, a little east of the station. The Japanese replied languidly. The weather today is fine and sunny, with a cold, biting wind. There was a severe frost last night.

St. Petersburg, October 22.—2 a. m.—The rival armies of Russia and Japan, entrenched a short distance from each other near the Shakhe river, are forced to continue inactivity until the fine weather now prevailing dries the sodden ground and the tried warriors are sufficiently rested to resume operations.

A dispatch from Mukden to the Associated Press reports that the Russians yesterday confined themselves to a bombardment of Shakhe station and the adjoining village of Lamatung, the Japanese feebly responding. This news clears up an interesting point and shows that Shakhe station is not held by the Russians.

Russian correspondents report that some regiments of the Fifth Siberian corps have been engaged in slight skirmishes on the advance line the past few days. The fact that the First and Fifth Siberian were the only corps hitherto unmentioned in reports of the fighting of October 19 shows that General Kuropatkin has sent the reserves to the trenches. Meanwhile the Cossacks are raiding the Japanese lines.

It has been developed that after the Lone Tree hill rout the Japanese were unable to remove a number of cannon in addition left on the hill and which remained midway between the Russian and Japanese trenches. As they lay these guns were so exposed to fire from both sides that it was impossible for either Russians or Japanese to get possession them during daylight, and repeated attempts have been made by both sides to secure the guns under cover of darkness. Up to the present time Cossack detachments have succeeded in getting several of these cannon.

JAPS RELEASED PRISONERS UNABLE TO DO BATTLE

Tokio, October 21.—4 p. m.—The military authorities have released the captured paymaster of the Russian armored cruiser Burik, who is 70 years of age, on account of his age; thirty-four Russian hospital attendants and twelve battle maimed soldiers. They will be sent to the Russian consul at Shankhai. In future it is probable that the Japanese will release prisoners whose wounds are healed and who are incapacitated for further fighting.

EVERY MAN WOUNDED BUT ONLY ONE KILLED

Mukden, October 21.—Every man of the 200 Cossacks commanded by Captain Tourgenieff, who on Tuesday night reconnoitered the Japanese left southward and who, near Sandopu, unexpectedly encountered a good-sized Japanese force with machine guns, was wounded and every horse, except Captain Tourgenieff's, was hit by the bullets from the Japanese machine guns.

Tourgenieff, though mortally wounded, carried off one man behind his saddle, while others managed to creep back to camp. But, as already cabled, one man was killed in the field. There is the greatest fear on the part of the Russian wounded of falling into the hands of the Japanese, the Rusians being convinced that they torture their prisoners.

FRIDAY'S EVENTS IN THE FAR EAST.

MILITARY operations in Manchuria are awaiting the drying of the roads and plains, rendered impassable for artillery and even for infantry by the recent heavy rains. Meanwhile the correspondents at the front have only desultory cannonading and unimportant skirmishes to report.

The report that the railway station at Shakhe had been retaken by the Russians and that railway traffic between that place and Mukden would be restored at once was erroneous, the place still being in the hands of the Japanese.

The Russian government is hastening the dispatch of troops to the Far East to constitute the second Manchurian army.

He died a few minutes after the accident.

Covington, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—An effort has been started by the citizens of Mansfield for the establishment of a bank at that place. Hon. D. J. Adams, of Brick Store, is behind the movement and will take $10,000 worth of stock, the people of Mansfield subscribing the balance. The bank will be capitalized at $15,000. Newton county will then have five banks.

Elberton, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—The suit of Miss Lelia Hobbs to enjoin the city of Elberton from getting its supply of water from Beaver Dam creek because of alleged injury to her mill property at a point below where the city will erect its station, was argued last Monday before Judge Holden and decision reserved. Yesterday Judge Holden handed down his decision granting an interlocutory injunction. The city will likely fight the proceedings further.

HEWITT KILLED BY WILD JUMP

LaGrange, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—Charles Hewitt, who for several years has been in the United States revenue service under Captain John R. Ware, was instantly killed about 3 o'clock this morning by stepping from a rapidly moving train under the impression that he was getting off at the depot.

The train was the special excursion over the Atlanta and West Point railroad which was run Thursday in order to carry the crowds up to Atlanta to see the Forepaugh show. Mr. Hewitt was sleeping when this place was called. It seems that he went to the water cooler to get a drink of water, and when he got ready to get off the train it was already under way and going rapidly. He did not appear to have noticed this, but stepped off in the darkness when the train was passing the ice factory, a considerable distance from the depot.

He was instantly killed, his skull being crushed. This morning Mr. Hewitt's body was shipped to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hewitt.

At the same time last night another man was also hurt in the same way, while attempting to get off the train here after it had gone past the depot. His injuries, however, were slight.

TILLMAN SUES FOR LARGE SUM

Columbus Man Wants Money Claimed on Salary Account.

Columbus, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—A big suit has just been filed in Muscogee superior court which has created much interest in business circles.

William L. Tillman instituted suit against the Home Mixture Guano Company for $14,650, which amount he alleges is due him for his services as president of the company from its organization, June 19, 1900, to July 14, 1904, on which latter date he sold his stock in the company and resigned the office of president.

Colonel Tillman owned one-third of the stock of the company, the remaining two-thirds being owned by H. Bussey and A. Bussey. At the organization W. L. Tillman was elected president; H. Bussey, general manager, and A. Bussey, secretary and treasurer.

When salaries were fixed that of the general manager was fixed at $1,800 and that of the secretary and treasurer at $1,800. No salary was fixed for the office of president. Colonel Tillman alleges that the fixing of the salary for this office was deferred by the majority of the board of directors until he finally became very much dissatisfied with the situation.

He says that the directors never would agree to give him a salary. Colonel Tillman says that as president of the company he provided and procured all the necessary financial assistance, frequently by his own personal endorsement, and put the company on a strong financial standing.

The company has prospered, as illustrated by the fact that the value of its stock increased from $100 to $216 per share. Colonel Tillman thinks that $3,600 per annum is a reasonable salary for the office and asks judgment for $14,650.

DOYAL FLASHED A PISTOL.

He Objected When E. J. Clark Found His Long Lost Wife.

Tom Doyal, a plumber, was arrested at 10 o'clock last night and charges of disorderly conduct and pointing a pistol at another were entered against him.

It seems that the wife of E. J. Clark separated from her husband several months ago. Tom Doyal became infatuated with the woman and last August Doyal and Mrs. Clark went to live at a boarding house on Fairlie street.

They got along well enough until last night, when Clark, after a long search, located his wife. He found her alone and decided to take advantage of the occasion to patch up old troubles. About this time Doyal happened in. He flashed a pistol in the faces of the landlady, the wife and her husband, threatening to kill them all in one fell swoop. Pandemonium broke loose and the landlady rang for the police.

At this time Doyal thought it the part of wisdom to make himself scarce and he proceeded to leave the scene of strife.

Officers soon appeared and began a search for Doyal. After some delay Doyal was found and placed behind the bars. He must answer to the city charge of disorderly conduct and for the state offense of pointing a pistol at another.

In the meantime Clark was put in a cell in the police station. No charge is made against him, but the officers thought it would be dangerous for him to be on the streets while Doyal was free, as the latter seemed desperate. Clark was drinking heavily.

Mrs. Clark also was arrested and she must answer to the charge of disorderly conduct.

Holding Cotton for 10 Cents.

Villa Rica, Ga., October 21.—(Special.) About three-fourths of the cotton has been harvested and sold. Some few farmers who are able to hold their cotton are now taking it home and propose to keep it unless they can get 10 cents for it. The top or late bolls have almost parched up. There was killing frost on the 16th, so no one counts on any top crop now.

HARRY WILLIAMS, THE YOUNG man charged with stabbing J. J. Thomason several nights ago, while the latter was accompanying Mrs. W. R. Smith home, was released from police headquarters yesterday morning on bond pending trial. Thomason is out of the hospital and is apparently not suffering from the wounds received. Physicians at Grady hospital say that his wounds are slight.

THE CASE AGAINST L. E. FAIN, automobile driver and repairer for the Atlanta Automobile Company, who was charged with knocking Thomas Abbott, son of William Abbott, from his bicycle to the pavement on Whitehall street a few days ago, was dismissed by Judge Broyles, of the recorder's court, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Abbott, father of the boy, appeared before the court and said that he did not wish to prosecute the case, as all amends had been made. He said he felt sure that the affair was purely an accident.

FRANK LEDBETTER, A YOUNG man whose home is near Dalton, was seriously injured yesterday afternon while attempting to board a train at the union depot. His foot slipped as he was attempting to board the train and he was thrown to the platform. When picked up it was ascertained that his left hip had been dislocated while he had been otherwise injured. He was carried to the home of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Almond, on Washington street, where surgical attention was rendered.

CHARLES WHITEHEAD AND LUcius Gannt, two negroes, were bound over to the state courts by Recorder Broyles, charged with breaking into and entering the drug store of Dr. D. J. Gunter at the corner of Walton and Peachtree streets. Whitehead confessed that he entered the store and burglarizd it of several articles.

J. T. NORMAN, A FARMER, WAS flim-flammed out of $4.80 yesterday morning on Pryor street near Trinity avenue by one of Atlanta's negro thieves. Norman was selling butter to people in the above community when a young negro man emerged from Trinity avenue, and told him that a lady wished to buy 3 pounds of butter for which Norman was asking 20 cents per pound. He carried the butter away, and in a few minutes returned and asked the farmer for $4.20, saying that the purchaser had a $5 greenback to change. Norman unsuspectingly gave the negro the change, and has not seen him since.

TWELVE WHITE AND COLORED boys and men of the same races were arraigned before Recorder Broyles yesterday afternoon charged with swinging and riding on trains pulling out of Atlanta without having paid their fares. Several of the offenders were fined $1 and costs while the remainder were fined $1. The police department is determined to put a stop to the swinging of trains, giving as their reason the danger involved. A crusade has begun against this phase of municipal lawlessness.

SWITCHMAN FOSTER, OF THE Southern railway, was run over by a switch engine last night about 7 o'clock near Simpson street, and had two fingers cut off. He had a fainting spell and was taken to the Grady hospital for treatment.

SUPREME COURT APPROVES RATE

Railway Commission of Florida Wins Victories in Rate Cases.

Tallahassee, Fla., October 21.—(Special.)—The supreme court of Florida has rendered opinions and judgments in several important cases, sustaining in each instance the position taken by the Florida railroad commission in its efforts to adjust the freight rates charged by common carriers in this state upon shipments of phosphate. The decisions rendered today are regarded as signal victories for the railroad commission, and as tending to effectually strengthen that arm of the state government in its efforts to bring relief to the shippers of Florida.

In the case of the State ex rel. W. H. Ellis, attorney general, and J. M. Barrs, as special counsel of the railroad commissioners, plaintiff, v. Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, respondent, a most lucid opinion and judgment were rendered.

The amended return of the respondent filed last July presented the two issues: First, that the phosphate rate here sought to be enforced was in and of itself unreasonable; and, second, that taken in connection with the other schedule of freight rates enforced by the state railroad commission in Florida, its enforcement would result in and of the equal protection of the law, contrary to the guarantee of the constitution of the United States and the amendments thereof.

The opinion declared the respondent failed to overcome the presumptions of reasonableness which the statutes of Florida cast around the findings of its railroad commisison.

The opinion concludes: "Taking the figures from the brief filed by the respondent, we find that the local business alone produces a net earning of, at least, 3 per cent on the total value of the road in Florida, charging against such income the whole of the taxes. While a state is not permitted to offset local business against interstate business, and to justify low local rates by reason of the profitableness of the latter, yet the interstate and foreign business may and should be considered in determining the proportion of the value of the property of the company assignable to local business.

In the case of the state of Florida, ex rel., W. H. Ellis, as attorney general of said state, and J. M. Barrs, as special counsel for the railroad commissioners of the state of Florida, v. the Seaboard Air Line railway, a corporation, respondent, the peremptory writ sought by the relator was awarded.

The opinion of the court in this case, the issues being the same as those raised in the Atlantic Coast Line case, as to whether the phosphate rate sought to be enforced is unreasonable, the court decided that the respondent failed to meet the burden of showing that the rate prescribed, together with the other rates in force, was unjust.

The opinion concluded: "It is impossible to ascertain from this showing what may be the operating expenses or the value of the road in Florida. There are given figures to show that the total cost of construction, equipment, etc., of the road in Florida has been about $15,500,000, but nothing to show what the depreciation has been nor what the present value is. To questions asked by the railroad commission as to expenses of fuel and other operating items, the respondent replied that it could not answer by states. It seems that the respondent in operating its line through several states has a scheme of distributing its incomes and expenses according to states, but this scheme is not made clear to us, nor has it so divided its domestic and foreign business that we can say that the net earning of only 3½ per cent on the total cost of construction, equipment, etc., is a confiscation of its property, or in any wise an infringement upon its constitutional rights."

The court decided that the rate in question was not unreasonable.

MULLEN FOUND; MIND UNSOUND

Summit, Ga., Man Who Disappeared Located in Augusta.

Augusta, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—E. B. Mullen, who disappeared from his home at Summit, Ga., several months ago, and whose whereabouts during that time has engrossed several of the big insurance companies very much, was arrested here this afternoon.

Mullen carried $28,000 life insurance, and when he disappeared his heirs tried to collect the amount. The insurance companies resisted the claim, because no proofs of his death were submitted. Pinkertons were put on the case, but they failed utterly to locate the missing man.

It was believed by many that Mullen had been murdered, and six or seven negroes have been arrested from time to time suspected of the crime.

Mullen was recognized on the street here today by Special Bailiff James Stratford, who was raised in the same part of Jefferson county as Mullen.

Mullen admits his identity, but is evidently out of his mind. He says that today he lost his last cent of money—$150—in a bucket shop. He cannot give any satisfactory account of himself, his talk being of a rambling character.

SIGNS OF RAIN STILL MISSING

Fair Weather Is the Programme Announced for Today.

"No, there's no rain in sight just now," remarked Forecaster Marbury, as he glanced over the roofs of the many houses below him. "We look into the future, as it were, about thirty-six hours, and today we have made a thorough examination, but there is not a drop of rain within the scope of our observation. And yet no one can say with a degree of absolute certainty that there won't be rain here before many days. Certainly we need it. If rain was ever needed in this section, it is needed now."

Turning to his charts and books of record, the forecaster took on a reminiscent look as he remarked:

"But Atlanta has had it just as bad. There were dry years here from 1890 to 1896, inclusive, and during that period, that series of years you might call it, there was mighty little water fall. From 1890 to 1896 the water fall was away below normal. Ninety-seven was the first year from 1890 that showed the first normal water fall."

Glancing over his papers, some grown brown with age, the study of which brightened the forecaster's face, he remarked:

"The two driest years I can see since 1869 were 1876 and 1896."

The weather record work in this section had its birth in 1859. The service and the work during that time was what might be called voluntary. It lasted but a short time, because about then a small difference of opinion between the north and the south came on. But of that difference the forecaster had nothing to say. Then, in 1866 the work was taken up again and went on to 1878, all of it being done "voluntarily." In 1878 an official record was begun, and it is that record which is now at the service of those who may want to study the weather conditions of this section of the south.

"The last rain we have had here," resumed Mr. Marbury, "was on the 2d day of this month, and that was so light that it amounted to nothing, practically. Omitting that slight shower, the last rain coming Atlanta's way was on September 4. There was a fall, however, on the 3d. That's about forty-eight days ago. What should have been the rainfall during that time under ordinary or normal conditions? About five inches. Divide the five by the forty-eight and you have what it should have been each day had the distribution been even or equal. Of course that would have kept the water lines and the conditions of the ground about even. By that I mean there would have been no talk of drought in this section just now. However, I can't say I have heard much of this talk, as I am high above the sidewalks, upon which most of the talk is done."

The weather may promises a fair Saturday, with frosts in low places. In the state it is said it will be colder Friday night in the east and southern portions, with light frost in the northern and central portions.

SUIT FOR GOLD MINE ENDS.

Mining Property in Carroll County Involved.

Carrollton, Ga., October 21.—(Special.) The suit of Asa G. Townsend and W. A. Taylor against H. C. and Emma L. Rabun, C. H. Simpson and others in Carroll superior court, involving the title to the Boston and Kennesaw gold mining property in this county, which has been on trial for several days, was terminated yesterday afternoon by the plaintiff's attorneys dismissing their suit.

It had been a great legal battle. The counsel for the plaintiff was Judge W. F. Brown, of this city, and Colonel Loyd Thomas, of Tallapoosa, and for the defendants, Judge S. W. Harris, Colonels S. Holderness and R. D. Jackson. The residence of the plaintiffs was never ascertained during the trial, an effort having been made by interrogatories previously filed to make counsel disclose their whereabouts. It is expected that the suit will be renewed. Judge W. C. Hodnett, of the city court of Carrollton, has been largely the medium through which plaintiffs operated at various stages of the matter.

ENGINE WRECKS ROUND HOUSE

While on Turn Table Machine Causes Wall To Fall.

Selma, Ala., October 21.—At 10 o'clock this morning a locomotive engine while being taken through a turntable to the stall in the round house of the Southern shops in this city by a sudden tilting of the table got away and struck one of the large supports to the top of the round house, knocking the post out. Immediately there was a cracking and breaking of timbers and all of the east side of the house fell in, the brick walls following the roof. Only one engine was in the yard at the time. Loss is estimated at about $3,000. Fortunately at the time of the accident most of the employees in that part of the building were in the office drawing their pay checks, and those who had not gone to the office managed to escape before the roof struck the ground. It was at first thought that many of the men were caught beneath the falling walls and telephone messages were sent over the city for physicians.

NO WATER FOR THE MILLS.

Gins Running on Less Time for Lack of Water.

Villa Rica, Ga., October 21.—(Special.) The scarcity of water in this section caused by the continued drought is becoming quite a serious matter. Both the large cotton ginneries here have been forced to run on short time for want of water. The water grist mills are doing no good, and can't grind enough to supply the demand, consequently a great deal of meal is being shipped to this point. Wells that have never failed before are perfectly dry.

Farmers Hauling Water.

Huntsville, Ala., October 21.—(Special.) Madison county farmers are complaining that their wells have gone dry and that numerous springs are now lower than they have ever been known to be before. There has been no rain of any consequence since the latter part of August and farmers in nearly every section of the county are hauling water for the use of their family as well as stock.

Cotton Raised for Six Cents.

Raleigh, N. C., October 21.—(Special.)—Official reports made by several thousand North Carolina farmers to the state labor commissioner show that this season the cost of producing cotton has been a trifle over 6 cents a pound on an average in North Carolina, in which cotton is grown in seventy out of the ninety-seven counties. In some cases the cost is as much as 7 cents to produce it.

BEE MEN MEET AND ORGANIZE

Association of Bee-Keepers Formed in Macon Yesterday.

Object of Body Is To Regulate the Price of Honey and To Take Necessary Measures To Protect Interests of Those in the Business.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street, Macon, Ga., October 21.—Special.)—The Southern Beekeepers' Association was organized this afternoon in this city.

The price of honey will be regulated by the association, and measures taken to protect the interests of the members.

The following officers were elected:

J. J. Wilder, Cordele president.

Dr. G. W. Rush, Savannah, vice president.

Judson Heard, Macon, secretary and treasurer.

No Social Equality.

Macon, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—When Mayor Smith revoked a street preaching permit previously given a white man here, he emphatically sat down on social equality in Macon. Equipped with a small organ, a body of evangelists, composed of men, women and children, struck Macon some time ago. They appeared to be anti-denominationalists; but there was one thing certain—the negroes swarmed around the little band as thick as bees.

When several negro women were seen with bowed heads worshiping with the evangelists, prominent citizens spoke to the mayor about it. He stated this morning that he did not wish to interfere with any man worshiping according to the dictates of his conscience, but that the preaching of social equality on the streets of Macon would not be permitted. He said he was told the evangelistic band in question not only declared the negro to be as good as the white man, his equal in every respect, but declared it to a large audience of negroes. For this reason the man's preaching permit was revoked.

Harris Gets Limit.

Macon, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—Will Harris, a young negro, was given the limit in the recorder's court—six months—for attempting to assault a young lady visitor to the fair, who was on her way from the park grounds in the company of L. A. Fullerton, of the Southern Express Company. Harris claims he jumped at the young lady because he thought she was a negro woman. He was met by a blow from the fist of Mr. Fullerton.

NEW FEATURES AT STATE FAIR

Mrs. Felton's Address and Visit of Children Yesterday.

Macon, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—Probably that which attracted greatest attention at the fair grounds today was the address of Mrs. W. H. Felton, of Cartersville. Mrs. Felton was unable to speak at the hour scheduled, but when she did she held the closest attention of her hearers in describing "Things Seen at St. Louis."

A feature of today's attendance at the fair was the sight of all the children of the Mumford Industrial home, the Methodist Orphans' home and the Appleton Church home, taking in the fair. Another attraction has been added. Vice President George A. Smith, of the Macon Fair Association, this morning booked by wire Prodigious Porthos, who is a side issue to the circus of Forepaugh & Sells Bros., to perform twice daily in the Hippodrome on the fair grounds.

GEORGIA PLAYS IN CLEMSON.

Supporters of Red and Black Believe That Georgia Will Repeat Auburn Performance.

Athens, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—The Georgia football team left today for Clemson, S. C., where the game between the Georgians and the Clemson team is to be played tomorrow.

One week has elapsed since the game with Florida in Macon, when the Georgians piled up 52 points against their opponents. Since that time the team has been putting in some hard work and Coach Barnard and Assistant Coach Dickinson have been giving the team the very best of training. The result is that the team is much stronger now than it has ever been.

There is no spirit of over-confidence with the wearers of the red and black. They know that the game tomorrow is to be one of the most desperate of the season, and that if they win it will be only after putting forth their best efforts. No one is looking for a big score, although it is believed Georgia will be able to get at least two touchdowns. There is a feeling that Clemson will not be able to score and even if she does score that one time will be about her limit.

Georgia believes she will be able to at least repeat Auburn's score over Clemson, and perhaps go a little better. The result of this game is looked upon with great interest here, as it will give something in the way of comparative scores with Auburn, the team that is to be played by Georgia Thanksgiving day in Macon.

Coach Barnard, Professor Patterson and others went with the team to Clemson this afternoon. The players carried to Clemson were Ray, Moore, Black, Ritchie, Arnold, Hoke, Sullivan, Woodruff, Cox, Brown, Killorin, Sage, Rossiter.

Cohen's Residence Burns.

Bainbridge, Ga., October 21.—(Special.) The residence of David A. Cohen was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. A considerable amount of diamonds and jewelry was lost. The flames were uncontrollable and caught the High school building, about 100 yards distant. Three hundred pupils were quickly gotten out.

THEATERS.

The Grand

"The Sultan of Sulu" pleased a good-sized house at the Grand last night. The audience reveled in the brilliant satire of the opera and went away whistling and humming the charming airs that crowd the score.

The company was not by any means the best organization ever gotten together to produce a comic opera, but nevertheless there were several good voices among the principals, and the charming piece was presented in a way that really entertained.

Thomas Whiffen rendered the character of the sultan with some degree of merit, but his comedy work was frequently rather forced, and was rarely the spontaneous, irresistible kind that causes the spectator to forget some one is making an effort to be funny.

On the other hand, Fred Frear's portrayal of Hadji, the private secretary, was all that comedy should be. He seemed to enter into the part as a hand enters into a glove exactly its size—the fit was perfect and the result was the joy of last night's audience.

Maude K. Williams, as Henrietta Budd, and Nellie V. Nichols, as Chiquita, both sang well and were favorites. Flo Irwin realized the evident ideas of the author in her rendition of the judge advocate's part. The chorus was not overly good looking, but the entrancing lyrics of Alfred Walthall were rendered with vim and animation.

The opera itself needs no comment. Every one knows that George Ade, the brilliant wit and satirist, has poured into that libretto the purest, most radiant gems of his genius. To say more in praise of the "Sultan" is superfluous.

Bettina Gerard, who will be pleasantly remembered by many as the principal soprano of the most successful comic opera productions, and particularly of her namesake in "The Mascot," will be seen at the Grand on Monday afternoon and evening in Manager Jules Murry's production of the metropolitan success of last season, "The Marriage of Kitty." Miss Gerard will appear as Kitty, and that admirable comedian, Max Figman, as the husband, who marries her only to carry out the conditions of a will, and who after a year's absence returns to arrange for a divorce, to find that the woman who has purposely made herself into a fright at the time of the marriage, is really very charming, and he proceeds to fall in love with her. The delightful way in which she sings to her own piano accompaniment is one of her methods of charming him. Of this comedy The New York Tribune said: "There could be no doubt of its merriment or of the popular acceptance of it."

An engagement that should interest all is that of Harry Beresford in his continuous laugh, "Our New Man," to be seen at the Grand Tuesday and Wednesday. This young man possesses undoubted versatility and delights his auditors with his genuine humor and natural style of acting. The cast with which Mr. Beresford has surrounded himself is one of unusual excellence and contains the names of many persons prominent as farceurs on the stage of today. Appropriate scenery aids in the presentation, and an evening of much real enjoyment may be anticipated by those who will be fortunate enough to be present at this engagement.

There will be a matinee Wednesday afternoon.

The Bijou.

The prediction made earlier in the week that some records would be broken this week by George Sidney at the Bijou has come to pass, and many of the patrons of the popular theater have gone several times to enjoy the fun, music and glitter of "Busy Izzy." Busy Izzy has held his own against all counter attractions, and the "Standing Room Only" sign has been used at every performance during the week.

A matinee this afternoon and a final performance tonight will bring to a close one of the most successful engagements, from every standpoint, that the Bijou has enjoyed this season.

The Bijou will offer next Monday, for a week's engagement, that merry musical farce, "A Hot Old Time."

The Norfolk Ledger said of the performance: "It is one long loud laugh at the Granby this week, where 'A Hot Old Time,' that merry musical nonsense, is being presented to overflowing houses. The special feature of the show is Mlle. Ani, the wonderful European aerial artist, whose work on the trapeze shows wonderful muscular development. Another matinee will be given tomorrow afternoon, with the usual night performances the rest of the week. The seat sale has been very large."

Negro Shoots Policeman.

Athens, Ga., October 21.—(Special.)—This afternoon at the circus, a negro man shot at Officer Brooks, who had a negro woman under arrest. The bullet went through the arm of the negro woman, inflicting a bad wound, and also penetrated the hand of the policeman, inflicting a flesh wound. The negro made his escape.

IN THE COURTS.

Two of Fulton county's popular officials, who are also prominent as confederate veterans, had a unique and pleasant experience one day this week. The two officials were Colonel L. P. Thomas, deputy sheriff, and Captain Thomas H. Armistead, tax receiver.

These two officials, with several other gentlemen, were guests of R. J. Henderson, of Resaca, Ga., who escorted them over the famous battle field near his home—a battle field that has an important place in the past of both the Fulton county men.

The party was made up as follows: Colonel Thomas, Captain Armistead, Judge W. L. Calhoun, R. A. Henderson, the federal court reoprter; Dr. W. M. Durham and James H. Griffin.

It was on the Resaca battle field that Colonel Thomas assumed command of the Forty-second Georgia regiment, so famous as a body of fighting men. For him the old battle field had many memories, both sad and pleasant.

Judge Calhoun and Captain Anderson were both wounded at this battle, and with the aid of maps, which Colonel R. J. Henderson, their host, had secured from Washington, they were able to locate the exact spots where they fell.

This field had also witnessed memorable conduct on the part of Colonel Henderson himself. He was wounded, but despite the pain and weakness caused by that wound, he succeeded in rallying his regiment when it was about to fall back, and under his leadership it made one of the most gallant stands of the whole fight.

Altogether the trip was a most delightful one, and the two officials who made the visit to the old spots have returned to their offices with the pleasantest sort of memories to cheer them.

A petition for a charter for the Cruickshank Cigar Company was yesterday filed in the office of Arnold Broyles, clerk of the superior court. The petitioners are A. Cruickshank, R. P. Jones and George B. Rush, and the capital stock of the proposed company is to be $3,500. The business to be carried on is that of dealing in cigars, tobacco, periodicals, etc. The petition was filed by Moore and Pomeroy.

GEORGIA DAY DRAWS CROWD

Good Racing and Riding at Northwest Fair Grounds.

Chattanooga, Tenn., October 21.—(Special.)—Yesterday was Georgia day at the fair, and more than 5,000 people were on the grounds.

The first attraction of the day was the ladies' riding contest, with a large number of entries. The first prize was won by Mrs. Jessie Harris, the second by Miss May Henderson, third by Mrs. J. R. Camp, while Miss Bulah Elder and Mrs. M. C. Bond received ribbons. The riding contest, the 200-yard dash, a foot race, free for all, was run, and the event was won by Corporal Allen, of troop M, Seventh cavalry.

A football game was then played between troop G and a picked team from Camp Thomas, which resulted in a victory for troop G, score 7 to 0. After the ball game the horses were called to the post for trotting races, 1 mile, 2:40 class, with two entries—Bungle, owned by William Tatum, and Harry, a bay horse, owned by Randolph Howell. From the start Bungle gradually pulled away from Harry, and leading until the stretch was reached, when she became frightened at the yelling of the crowd and broke. This sent Harry quickly to the front and crossed the wire half a length ahead. Time, 2:44 1-2.

The second race, a trotting race, four minute class, which was won by Russell. Time 3:04 flat.

The third, a running race, half-mile heat, between Mr. Shields' bay horse and John Dodd's sorrel mare, ridden by a negro named Joe Black, who won in both heats.

After the races the balloon ascended and Miss Marie Harcourt made a sensational leap from the clouds.

After the balloon ascension the ladies' fancy driving contest took place in front of the grandstand. It was won by Miss Jessie Harris, who also won the ladies' riding contest. She received a blue ribbon, while Mrs. J. Ashly Jones, of Chattanooga, was decorated with red.

Today will be the last one of the fair and is Chattanooga day.

Maybe one of those grand dukes could do better than Kuropatkin.

There are no vocal indications that Tom Watson's health is not robust.

Kuropatkin seems disposed to stop and argue Oyama's order to "move on."

Hear that jarring sound? It's the democratic landslide beginning to break loose.

There was no Hitch in the court martial proceedings incident to the Statesboro affair.

Somebody is going to want to court martial General Apathy after the presidential election.

The republicans are giving no betting odds on General Grosvenor's electoral college forecasts.

Uncle Joe Cannon is betraying grave doubts as to the continuance of his speakership job.

Perhaps The New York Herald predicted Roosevelt's "probable" election merely to preserve its office tradition of "independence."

Thirteen million three hundred and twelve thousand six hundred and sixty-eight passengers traveled in Pullman cars during the past year and paid the porter the premium on their "Pullman insurance."

However, the Russians have been driven back only 20 miles in twelve days. That is an improvement in their sprinting proclivity.

Dr. Wiley, the government chemist, claims that 85 per cent of all whisky is bad. The doctor must have been a free sampler in his time.

The future "oldest inhabitant" of the rising generation will some day feel a pardonable pride in referring exhaustively to the "drought of 1904."

A New York doctor claims to have killed a cat and brought it back to life again. Pity he wouldn't do as much for some of his deceased patients.

There are rumors that the Baltic fleet is unseaworthy. Admiral Togo thinks he knows how to make it that way if it ever gets in broadside distance of him.

The late Senator Hoar's successor in the United States senate is a millionaire. Senator Hoar was a comparatively poor man otherwise than in his stock of gray matter and principle.

The Wisconsin "stalwart" republicans are smiling in their sleeves at the talk that the factional fight in that state will not affect the republican national ticket. They have a crow to pick with Candidate Roosevelt.

We are rapidly getting the greater navy, but unless more Americans show a disposition to want to serve the government afloat, it is difficult to see where the men are coming from to man the new ships, and particularly to officer them.

Even General Kuropatkin speaks highly of the Japanese and their strict observance of the rules of war in matters of humanity. It is not the Japanese who are responsible for lack of decent respect for the dead on the hill slopes of Port Arthur.

The newest agricultural section of the union, Oklahoma, won the gold medal for the best exhibition of agricultural products at the St. Louis exposition. Another statehood argument, but one that will be lost on a republican congress if Oklahoma's vote does not suit it.

The power of the Japanese nation to prosecute a long and bloody war is infinite within itself, regardless of its foreign borrowing capacity. The secret of this power is the great industry and thrift of the Japanese people, their severe simplicity of living, and their eagerness to make any sacrifice for their country.

The president of the United States has rather too much power for the chief executive of a republic. It is of prime importance that he be a man disposed to exercise his legal power in a democratic spirit and with the profoundest respect for the constitution. As the chief servant of the people they will tolerate in him none of the "over-lord" spirit.

The Hitch Decision.

The decision of the courtmartial in the case growing out of the Statesboro lynching cannot be a very great surprise to anybody who followed the testimony before the military court.

Under this decision Captain Hitch, the officer in command of the troop on the scene, is dismissed from the service, while Lieutenant Mell and Lieutenant Griner are given less severe punishment.

However extreme this decision may seem, it must be manifestly plain that it was the duty of the court, in its view of the testimony before it, to recommend the extremest punishment. The problem facing the military court was one calling for no halfway measures. Whoever was responsible for the failure of the military to do its full duty at Statesboro administered a blow not only to the state soldiery, but to the state itself, which was most damaging. Not only was the prestige of Georgia's soldiery damaged in the eyes of the outside world, but if this affair had been glossed over or whitewashed, the sentiment of the taxpayers of the state would have been strongly against further appropriations for the support of the militia.

We do not pretend to say that Captain Hitch did not act in accordance with his judgment under the surrounding circumstances, but the results showed that judgment to have been seriously in error.

If the government of this state is to be respected, it must demonstrate its power as a government, and there is no time when this must be more certainly done than when it comes to dealing with any phase of the lynching problem.

The action of the military court means that hereafter when Georgia troops are called out to prevent lynching and keep down mobs, the guns of the soldiers will be loaded and the officers will not hesitate, when the emergency comes, to maintain the supremacy of the law, and the authority of the state, at any cost.

In the Fifth District.

The democratic executive committee for the fifth congressional district is to meet in this city today to perfect plans for the campaign.

The members of this committee are gentlemen prominent in business and political affairs in the several counties and will doubtless take an active part in getting out the democratic vote at the coming election, as they should.

The duty of doing this does not, however, rest entirely upon the members of the committee. In fact there is more reason this year than ordinarily for every democrat in the district evincing an earnest and active interest in the congressional election. This should mean not only his casting his ballot for the party's nominee, but it should include his getting out and working for Colonel Livingston.

It is highly important that the democratic congressmen from Georgia and other southern states should be able to show to the country that they go to congress with a good, full vote behind them. One of the facts out of which republican critics of the south make most capital is that in many instances only a small fraction of the vote is cast for southern members. While the conditions which produce this effect are clearly understood here in the south, and while the argument based on this showing is a specious one, still the best way to answer it is by a full vote.

Colonel Livingston has made an excellent member. His usefulness to his district has been demonstrated in a thousand different ways, and his opportunities for usefulness are increased with each reelection. All of these considerations should contribute to popular interest in his election and a big vote.

All democratic voters in the district should cooperate with the committee in getting out such a vote.

Secretary Taft, His Smile.

Secretary Taft seems destined to go down in history as the Lord Clive of America's temporary experiment in colonialism. What he did for the "pacification" of the erring and unregenerate Filipinos is now a part of history, although, we must confess, we have a curiosity to read history for information on that score. Not being a republican imperialist, we shall have to be shown.

But Secretary Taft is a great pacificationist, if we will be pardoned the coinage. It must be his personality, and largely his physical personality, which is notable in avoirdupois. Like most men of his circumference, the colonial secretary—beg pardon, the secretary of war—is the personification of geniality and bonhomie. It is said of him while occupying the governer-general's palace in Manila, that the sight of him meant a truce with any breech-clouted bolo-blower in the Philippines. The most incorrigible Moro ladrone could not resist the Taftian smile, accompanied by the hypnotic beam of the twinkling Taftian eye. His whole physical ensemble exudes sunshine, and sunshine goes a long way in the paths of the white man's burden.

Secretary Taft is going to Panama—probably "after the presidential election"—to try his winning smile upon the ungrateful Panamans. Admiral Walker, of the canal commission, to the contrary notwithstanding, there is mischief brewing down on the isthmus. The foolish natives take their vest-pocket republic seriously and insist on getting some of the revenue incident to a condition of organized sovereignty. They want a few port receipts and other governmental perquisites which Uncle Sam, having eaten their apple, does not seem willing to leave them in the shape of the core. All of which is very annoying, just at this political juncture here in the states, and Secretary Taft has been commissioned by the president to run down to Panama and give the Panamans one of those famous Filipino jollies.

Success attend him! He is the man for the mission. He will come, see, and his spontaneous smile will conquer.

Mr. Bryan's Straight Talk.

In his speech delivered at Rusnville, Ind., Mr. Bryan gave the listening Hoosier hosts some very straight talk on the race question. According to the press dispatches, the Nebraskan dwelt with particular emphasis upon what he termed the determination of the present administration to force the race question upon the people, and added:

"You never hear of the president appointing a negro postmaster in the north; but in the south, where the elevation of the black man above his white brother is particularly distasteful, there is where the colored appointments are made."

It is to be regretted that more of the democratic orators do not carry this truth home to the people of the northern states. Instead, there seems to be timidity in the heart of most northern democrats whenever the race question is mentioned, and speakers going into the campaign in the doubtful states are warned against reference to it.

What possible harm can be done by telling the truth about the responsibility of the present occupant of the white house for keeping this race question constantly agitated? Do the democratic managers at the north imagine they are going to get negro votes, no matter how silent they may be or how much they may profess political friendship with the "brother in black?" Surely, if this is the motive inspiring their silence they are counting upon something no more substantial than moonshine.

What they ought to do is to tell the plain truth about this race agitation and show exactly where the responsibility lies. They ought to meet the republican taunt of a "solid south" by showing that one of the chief factors in keeping that south solid is this administration determination to "elevate the colored man above his white brother."

In these days of political timidity, Mr. Bryan's straight talk is refreshing.

The Trusts Versus Unionism.

The labor vote, where not coerced by the power of employment, will be found to be for Judge Parker on November 8. The attitude of the trusts toward labor, and the relation of the republican party to the trusts, explains the unmistakable drift of the wage-earners of the land to the democratic party.

The trusts signalized their firm intrenchment behind republican breastworks eight years ago by slowly, insidiously, but surely, beginning to break down trade unionism. This is the next move contemplated after perfecting their monopolistic designs upon the consuming public, and it must be admitted that they have already made significant headway. Union labor has, perhaps, never suffered such a blow as the outcome of the stockyards strike in Chicago, in which the most oppressive of all American trusts won its point, throwing thousands of striking unionists out of employment and forcing other thousands of them to go back to work alongside of non-union workmen, 10,000 of whom are negroes.

By a careful census it has been found that there are rully 100,000 men out of employment in Chicago today, many of them holders of union cards, and the bulk of this class the victims of the trust purpose to break the backbone of trade unionism at any cost. The same is the case in the other great industrial centers of the country. During the brief Roosevelt administration strikes, and great strikes at that, have been the order of the day. The cause of these strikes will, upon thoughtful investigation, be found to be connected with the trust plan to do to labor what it has done to the purchasing public, i. e., dictate terms to it. The trust will brook no domination from government, and it is galling to its pride of power to have to, even temporarily, make working terms with the trade unions. Unless the political power of these huge monopolies is broken by a change of federal administration, the work partially successful in the great packing plants of the country will proceed with a boldness and determination that will surprise the conservative sentiment of the American people. The next four years will see the trusts locked in a death grapple with trade unionism if the republican party is retained in federal power, and they will see the increased standing army engaged in the employment the trust politicians have mapped out for it, namely, doing police duty to protect strike-breakers.

As another straw to show the trend of industrial economy, a few days ago there was a "readjustment" of wages and working hours at the plant of the steel trust in Joliet, Ills. The resultant reduction in wages amounts to from 20 to 40 per cent, involving 4,000 wage-earners. It is stated that skilled workmen who have been earning $3,600 a year working eight hours a day must now work twelve hours a day to earn $2,400.

The reduction at Joliet is said to be part of a general plan to be put in operation in all the plants of the United States Steel Corporation. Expert workers in the billet mills, it is added, have been given an additional furnace to watch, and their salaries have been cut from $2,500 to $900 a year. In the "converter" department wages have been cut all around 35 per cent, the number of employees has been greatly reduced and the hours of work increased. Where fifteen men were at work at the ingot furnace, nine men now do the same work by working over time.

So it goes, or is to go, all along the trust line. "If union labor does not like it, it can lump it," say the trust managers in council. The "open shop" will be next. The trusts are only waiting until after the presidential election to see how far they can go with impunity. If the candidate (Roosevelt) whose election they are financing wins out, developments will come quickly and in disregard of consequences, so far as an era of strikes is concerned. Labor is made tractable and subservient in a period of panic and social distress.

In view of this crucial situation, it is a foolish workingman who throws away his vote on any third party this year. Either the republicans or the democrats are going to carry the election. The election of Roosevelt means continued trust domination; the election of Parker rigid trust regulation, with the protection of the people the governmental object. It is the knowledge of this fact, however clearly defined, that is certain to give the democratic ticket the enlightened and untrammeled labor vote next month.

In Holy Philadelphia.

Some of the democratic newspapers are shocked because the republican organization in this city bought 80,000 poll tax receipts. Undoubtedly the whole system is wrong, but if the democratic newspapers want a horrible example to hold up to the public let them take the democratic city organization which bought 37,000 receipts—all that it could find voters to fit or money to pay for.—The Philadelphia Press.

And this in the republican holy of holies, the City of Brotherly Love!

This testimony of disgraceful conditions prevailing in the greatest republican stronghold of the country comes from a newspaper ever ready and anxious to find something to criticize in the efforts of the southern states to purify the ballot box by making intelligence and character the requisite for the voting privilege.

It is not in those sections of the country where an intelligence qualification is provided, as it is in Massachusetts and in some of the southern states, that the real crimes against the ballot box are committed, but in republican strongholds like Philadelphia, where money is used in profusion to make voters with which to pad the election rolls.

The conditions prevailing in Philadelphia, for which the republican party is responsible, are a disgrace to this country and a menace to American liberty.

TALKS ABOUT ATLANTA.

Columbia (S. C.) State: Take a swallow of that "Atlanta spirit" and "get busy."

Augusta Herald: Atlanta is enjoying a carnival of crime. Augusta very soon enjoys a street carnival, but there is a difference.

Thomasville Times-Enterprise: The Atlanta papers are crowing over the fact that 2,500,000 eggs were used there last December.

Savannah Press: One of the latest Atlanta sensations is that Hugh Inman writes poetry. Frank Stanton should hail his fellow bard, "plain Georgia fashion."

Americus Times-Recorder: Atlanta wants to buy the monster pipe organ on exhibition at the St. Louis fair, feeling confident that she has ample wind to make it play.

Louisville (Ky.) Times: The correspondent of an Atlanta paper says, "And then the battle ship Georgia kissed the waves." The Georgia anti-kissing society should file a formal protest.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Who Was This Sergeant?

Editor Constitution: When a member of company D, Tenth Alabama regiment, Colonel William Smith commanding, a part of our company, including Colonel Smith, was captured a few days before the confederate surrender at High Bridge, near Farmville, Va. I gave a fine Colt's repeater to a federal sergeant whose name I cannot recall. He demanded the colonel's side arms, but the colonel threw them as far from him as he could.

I do not know the sergeant's name or command, but would be glad to hear from him, if alive, as he befriended me while in his custody and after I was paroled gave me clothes and rations.

TO DELIVER MAIL ON STREET CARS

New System Secured by Postmaster Blodgett for Local Office.

A mail delivery by electric cars is an innovation to which Atlantans outside the heart of the city will be treated after the first of the coming month.

For a period Postmaster Blodgett aided, assisted and abetted by Congressman Livingston, has been importuning the national postoffice department for a quicker and more frequent delivery of letters than has been had in the past.

The electric cars have been in use in other cities to accomplish this feat and for months Postmaster Blodgett, always anxious and desirous of pleasing the citizens of Atlanta, has been at work to secure orders by which the electric system of the Gate City of the south might be added to the many improvements made since Mr. Blodgett assumed charge of the postoffice here.

Months ago Postmaster Blodgett came to the conclusion that a more rapid and more frequent delivery of mail to suburban points than sub stations and mounted carriers provided should be afforded and set about to secure the use of the electric car lines. Aided as he has always been by the energetic work of Hon. Lon Livingston, representative in congress from this district, Postmaster Blodgett began a study of the delivery of mail by street cars. And now on November 1 Atlantans wanting their mail can get it warm from the electric wire.

Making clear to the postal authorities at Washington the justice of his requests Postmaster Blodgett has had the satisfaction of seeing the conclusion of a contract between the national government and the Georgia Railway and Electric Light Company by which mail matter is to be sent with all possible speed to the addresses. By the contract a schedule will be maintained, and as it now reads it is:

Two daily dispatches of mail each way between Atlanta and East End; three daily each way between Atlanta and East Atlanta; five daily and one Sunday between Atlanta and Woodward station, South Atlanta, Station A (West End), Fort McPherson and Edgewood; three daily between Edgewood and Kirkwood and two daily between Kirkwood and Decatur.

The pouches containing this mail will leave the main postoffice and will be carried from that building to the cars to which the pouches are consigned by a special messenger service to be provided or selected by the postmaster.

FOR A FORT VALLEY SCHOOL.

Professor Torbert in Atlanta Seeking Aid for Industrial College.

Professor J. H. Torbert, assistant principal and financial agent of the Fort alley, Ga., High and Industrial school, is in Atlanta in the interest of his school.

He hopes to secure contributions from the business men of Atlanta to be devoted to the industrial education of the colored youth of middle Georgia. Professor Torbert has met with success through the north in his appeal for funds to aid his school, but wishes to secure an endowment fund in Georgia of as large proportions as possible, to make this practical demonstration of the fact that the white citizens of this state are encouraging and supporting the work he has in hand. He came to Atlanta at the invitation of a prominent business man who has already pledged his aid to the school.

In speaking yesterday of his industrial school, Professor Torbert said:

"Principal H. A. Hunt and I are constantly reminding our people of the importance and desirability of remaining in the south after completing their education and thus contribute by their brain and muscle to the increased usefulness of the colored race.

"Our institution has no regular source of income, but depends entirely upon voluntary contributions for its support. Contributions of any size will aid us. We are anxious to increase our farm by at least fifty acres, to introduce plastering and bricklaying and erect a new building for the girls' industries. We also wish to complete Chapel hall, a large three-story brick building now in process of erection, and to have a dairy and laundry building. All aid extended toward this end will greatly assist us, and would be particularly timely now."

TAPP AT M'DONOUGH.

Fifth District Elector Will Speak In Henry County Monday.

Hon. Sydney C. Tapp, who is elector on the democratic ticket from the fifth congressional district, will deliver an address at McDonough, in Henry county, next Monday, October 24, at noon. Henry county court is now in session, and Judge Roan has consented to allow Colonel Tapp to have the noon hour, at which to make an address on the political issues of the day in support of the democratic ticket.

It is probable that Colonel Tapp will also make one or two speeches in the fifth district in the course of the next two or three weeks, and it is not unlikely that he will be asked to speak in some of the doubtful states of the north. He has volunteered his services at the democratic campaign headquarters, and has been notified that he will probably be called upon during the campaign.

WONT POSTPONE THE FAIR.

Lewis and Clark Centennial Will Open June 1.

Portland, Ore., October 21.—The following official information has been given out at the Lewis and Clark centennial headquarters here:

In view of some grossly erroneous reports circulated mainly at St. Louis, it is made necessary to state that the Lewis and Clarke centennial and fair will positively open on June 1, 1905. The exposition has under roof and ready to receive exhibits five of the main exhibition palaces. Shipments of foreign and domestic exhibits will begin to come in shortly after the 1st of December. The exposition has the sanction and the recognition of the United States and by the act of congress of April 13, 1904, the exposition is made international. The United States government buildings will be completed by April 1, 1905.

Postponement of the exposition has never for an instant been contemplated, cannot be considered and from all the advanced preparations, no possible reason exists for postponement.

TENN. MINISTERS FAVOR REMOVAL

Tennessee Synod Condemns Recent Action of Trustees.

Declares That the Synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana Have Absolute Right To Control Affairs of University.

Official action that greatly helps the movement to move to Atlanta the Southwestern Presbyterian university, of Clarksville, Tenn., and the Presbyterian Theological seminary, of Columbia, amalgamating the two institutions into one grand university in Atlanta, was taken yesterday by the Tennessee synod of the Presbyterian church.

The Tennessee synod adopted resolutions condemning the action of the trustees of the Southwestern university claiming power to elect new directors for the Clarksville institution and absolutely control the university.

The resolutions adopted by the Tennessee synod claim for the synods of Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana and Tennessee the right to control the affairs of the institution.

The practical effect of this is believed to be that the Tennessee synod will give its influence to remove the Southwestern university from Clarksville to Atlanta for the purpose of consolidating it with the Columbia institution.

Local Presbyterians of prominence are of the opinion that the trustees of the Southwestern university do not really believe they have the right to elect new directors, but believe they have the right to make that contention to the courts and thus delay action regarding the removal of the university to Atlanta. The trustees of the institution, it is believed, are of the opinion that if the removal is delayed long enough the time limit upon the subscriptions taken in Atlanta will expire, and that the subscriptions will not be renewed. This, however, is not the feeling in Atlanta, declare those who have kept in touch with the subscriptions to the fund.

Meaning of the Action.

Although the members of the Tennessee synod deny that Atlanta was thought of when the vote upon the resolution adopted yesterday was taken, it is generally understood that the action in condemning the trustees for interfering with the proposed removal of the university is favorable to this city.

Following is what the dispatches say regarding the matter:

"Knoxville, Tenn., October 21—The Tennessee synod of the Southern Presbyterian church, in session here, passed a resolution, by a vote of 37 to 33, condemning the action of the directors of the Southwestern Presbyterian university at Clarksville, Tenn., in claiming power to elect new directors and to absolutely control the university. The resolutions also claim for the synods of Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana the right to control the affairs of the institution.

"This action of the local Tennessee synod is in effect an indorsement of the plan to remove the university from Clarksville to Atlanta, the question of control having grown out of an injunction secured by the directors of the university, inhibiting the synod from taking any action in regard to the removal of the university from Clarksville. It is proposed to consolidate the Clarksville institution and the theological seminary now at Columbia, S. C., into one grand university at Atlanta.

"One of the leading men of the Tennessee synod said today:

"'The effect of the action of the synod last evening in adopting the resolution proposed concerning Southwestern Presbyterian university was to continue the university as a Presbyterian school, and had no bearing upon its removal elsewhere.'"

Pilgrims' Day at Fair.

St. Louis, October 21.—Several thousand descendants of the pilgrims and Puritans from various parts of the country asembled here today, and appropriately celebrated Congregational day at the Louisiana Purchase exposition. An object of great interest and veneration to those in Festival hall, where the principal exercises were held, was a portion of Plymouth Rock, on which the pilgrims landed December 21, 1620. Rev. Dr. Washington Gladden, moderator of the national counsel, presided at the meeting of Festival hall, which was crowded. Addresses were delivered by a number of prominent clergymen.

Trafalgar Day Celebrated.

London, October 21.—Trafalgar day was celebrated today at home and in the colonies with the usual decorations and dinners. Nelson's flag ship Victory, at Portsmouth, was gaily decorated with flags and decked with laurel and flew Nelson's famous signal. The base of the admiral's column in Trafalgar square here was elaborately covered with wreaths, prominent among the floral tributes being one of huge dimensions tied with the French and Spanish colors, sent by the Navy League, with respect and honor to the memory of the gallant French and Spaniards who fell at Trafalgar.

Cleveland, of Spartanburg, S. C.; Ellison A. Smythe, of Pelzer, S. C.; treasurer John R. Patterson, of New York; secretary, John Ford, of New York.

Paul Jones To Join the Fleet.

Sandiego, Cal., October 21.—The torpedo boat Paul Jones has gone under hurry orders to meet the Pacific squadron which is supposed to have left Magdalena bay, where target practice has been going on, for Panama. She is bearing dispatches, the nature of which are unknown. The boat took on an extra cargo of coal and provisions and steamed out at full speed.

ALLEN PLACED UNDER BONDS

Waived Preliminary Trial Before Judge on Yesterday Afternoon.

F. M. Allen must answer to the superior court on two charges of assault with intent to murder—one for shooting James Lester and the other for the charge of hitting Lester's wife over the head with the same gun. Both offenses were committed, it is charged, within a few minutes of each other on October 11. Preliminary trial was waived yesterday.

It seems that the ownership of the house on Marietta road, 2 miles from Howells Station, in which Lester and his wife were living, was disputed between Mr. Allen and Mrs. Jennie Collins. Lester was there at the instance of the latter. Allen, it is charged, went to the house and told Lester that they were trespassers and must leave. It is claimed that Allen, seeing that the Lesters did not intend to vacate, left and returned with his shotgun. Mrs. Lester says that he walked straight up to her husband and that she rushed up to Allen with her baby in her arms and knocked up the gun, as he was about to shoot, and the shot went to the ceiling. She says he became angry at this and struck her on the head with the butt end of the gun, producing a painful wound, from which blood flowed freely. After this, it is claimed, he fired the other barrel at Lester and his body was filled with shot.

Another dramatic feature of the case was the fact that Allen, after the shooting affair, went calmly to Judge Lumpkin's court where he had been summoned as a juror. Officer Dunbar had to go to the court room and inform Judge Lumpkin that he wanted one of his jurors. Judge Lumpkin required the officer to swear out a warrant, and this being done, Allen was taken into custody and placed in the Tower to await trial.

On account of Lester's condition, the case was postponed until yesterday. At that time Allen's lawyer decided to waive trial and Allen was bound over to the superior court on two charges of assault with intent to murder—one for assault on Mr. Lester and the other on his wife. Bond was fixed at $500 in each case. Allen gave bond.

Another interesting development grows out of the arrest of Luke Hartman, a nephew of Lester's, on October 17. It seems that Hartman also lived in the house that Allen claims. Allen and his father in law, on learning after the shooting of Lester, that Hartman was living in the house, took the law in their hands and themselves arrested Hartman and brought him to town. He was then turned over to an officer with two warrants sworn out against him—one for trespassing and the other for carrying concealed weapons, Allen and his father in law charging that they searched him and found a pistol in his pocket. That case was tried yesterday by Judge Orr and Hartman was acquitted of the first charge and bound over to the city criminal court for the other. Bond was fixed at $100. Hartman gave bond.

Police Threatened by Mafia.

Columbus, Ohio, October 21.—Headquarters Officer Churches and Sergeant Albanez, two Italian officers of the local police force, have been threatened with death by members of the local mafia because they have been active in ferreting out crimes alleged to have been committed by members of the organization. Officer Churches, who was detailed to ascertain the facts regarding the murder of the Italian, Yohuko Gergosh, reported today that he is unable to get any of the Italians to talk. Every Italian present at the time of the shooting denies all knowledge of the murder.

Berlin, October 21.—A. E. Depury, the attache of the Swiss legation here, has been transferred to the legation of Switzerland at Washington.

DAILY TIPS FROM THE PATENT OFFICE.

Reversible Wagon Seat.

The driver of an open carriage or wagon is at a decided disadvantage in a rainstorm, particularly in the case of the wagon driver who has occasion to leave his seat at frequent intervals for the delivery of goods. The downpour of rain soon puts the seat of his wagon out of condition for use and he is compelled either to deliberately plant himself in the pools of water or stand up, neither of which may be desirable or convenient.

REVERSIBLE SEAT FOR WAGON.

A reversible wagon seat has been designed, which is shown herewith, the subject of a recent patent granted to an inventor in Newman, Cal. The reversible portion of the seat contains the cushion, which is two-sided, and is mounted on pivots at each end. Either side is held in place for use by means of a latch conveniently placed for the purpose, and should one side of the seat become wet the other can be turned up in an instant.

THOUSANDS HEAR GOSPEL LEADERS

Encouraging Results of First Week for Dr. Chapman.

Dr. Shaeffer Has Announced the Conversion of Over 300 Children in the Short Time He Has Been at Work in City.

The close of the first week of Dr. Chapman's work witnesses encouraging results in many of the revival sections.

Dr. Schaeffer, the children's evangelist, has already announced the conversion of 300 or 400 souls for the various churches. This is a phenomenal work in so short a time.

Dr. Biederwolf has caught instantly the attention and sympathy of the people of the southside district. He is a preacher who powerfully moves his hearers.

Dr. Chapman has not been able to accommodate the crowds which at night have flocked to hear him.

As usual, Saturday will be an off day and practically no services will be held. Dr. Schaeffer will hold two or three services for children, and the song service at St. John completes the list of services today.

At First Methodist.

At First Methodist church the night meeting was crowded, the entire building was taxed to seat and accommodate the people in aisles, vestibule and entrances. An overflow service will be provided Monday evening in the chapel hall.

Besides the full chorus choir whose excellent music continues, the audience was delighted with Fred Butler's solo, "I Shall See Him Face to Face." The text Dr. Chapman used was Psalms cxiii, 4: "No man cared for my soul."

He said in substance:

"David, the shepherd boy king of Israel, doubtless sobbed out the words of the text. The king had sinned grievously, and his breaking heart, seeking refuge, finding none, uttered the heart cry that still sounds in our ears.

"It is strange that in a city like Atlanta there should be any one who could say, 'No one cared for my soul.' Any great disaster that takes men suddenly from earth brings people to tears and promptness of action that is entirely commendable. Yet we are content to show no special interest when we know there are men who do not believe in God's word, who are already under condemnation as we are told by the Bible, who are living only on God's mercy. We allow men to pass and repass us, meet us in society, home, business and elsewhere and never do we extend an invitation for them to come to Christ.

"Men come to think that perhaps the invitation from the pulpit is perfunctory and professional. It may take that appearance, yet it is not true. We stand back from inviting people to Christ because we ourselves feel unworthy and dread the appearance of inconsistency. Yet it is still true that no man regards you a real living Christian unless you do ask him to be a Christian and press the question home.

"We may safely approach a sinner if our lives are close to the Master, and men know how we love and trust Him.

"We do not realize that men are lost. We surely do not realize their condition. We are mistaken if we think men don't care. We allow chance after chance to pass us by. Men do care, men do look for it; men are disappointed when Christians do not ask them to come to Christ. The time to speak is when hearts are in trouble, when others are coming to Christ, when God directs you by impression."

Dr. Chapman closed with an invitation for all to ask an interest in the prayers of the church and the people. Very many responded and went into the after meeting, where there was a gracious season of refreshing, and many happy conversions were witnessed.

At the noon meeting at First Baptist church the house was filled, the children's room of the Sunday school was thrown open into the auditorium and was packed, crowds stood within the doors and aisles and many went away because they could not gain admission.

Dr. Chapman read as the scripture lesson the first thirteen verses of eleventh chapter of Luke, selecting as his text part of the first verse: "Lord, teach us to pray."

His sermon was a continuation of yesterday's discourse on "Prayer." The afternoon service at First Presbyterian church was also largely attended.

At Second Baptist.

As an evidence of interest in the meetings which Dr. Biederwolf and Professor Maxwell are conducting at the Second Baptist church, about forty members of the chorus were in the lecture room of the church some time before the opening of the service, preparing by practice and prayer for the service.

The congregation that filled the church comfortably was in a most excellent spiritual frame for receiving the message delivered by Dr. Biederwolf, from Romans ix, 3: "For I could wish that myself were accused from Christ for my brethren, kinsmen according to the flesh."

He spoke, in part, as follows:

"Paul had a marvelous passion for the souls of men. The passions of men rule the world.

"Accursed, set apart for destruction. Paul, in effect, says he is willing to go back into the state of condemnation if his fellowmen could be saved by it.

"From this thought we gather:

"1. A passion like this finds its source in Jesus Christ. The church must be the organ for the continuance of the passion of Christ. To have the spirit of Christ is to be concerned about the things about which He was and is concerned. We must share with Christ in his suffering for the lost. To be a real Christian costs something. If we are unwilling to suffer and sacrifice we are not true to the spirit of the Master. We need something of the passion of Jesus.

"2. When a man has this kind of a passion it must find release in earnest effort to save the lost. Paul gave vent to this passion and was found striving for men's souls.

"3. This effort will show itself in the effect it has on the unsaved. People would come to God if they thought we cared. We do not need so much argue with men, but to show a real concern, a deep interest for their souls. Such a concern always finds its expression. With a clear vision of the condition of lost souls we make an occasion for manifesting an interest.

"We find it easy to weep over losses and trials in the flesh, and do not think it strange that men should weep. We should we think it a strange thing that men should weep over the lost. They bear the name of Christ, and yet are strangers to His passion."

At the close of the service there was a strong manifestation of the spirit's power when about thirty-five requests for an interest in prayer. All went to feeling that the spirit of God had impressed the truth to the point of conviction.

The afternoon service at Trinity was well attended and was a most splendid service. There were about two hundred and twenty-five in attendance.

At St. John Church.

One of the most remarkable meetings of the present gospel union campaign occurred last night at St. John Methodist church, on Georgia avenue.

Rev. R. A. Walton preached on "Heavenly Marriage" and the house was packed to overflowing.

The music of the evening was splendid. Mr. O. F. Pugh met with the North Atlanta Sunbeam choir in the North Avenue Presbyterian church at 6:45 o'clock last night. From this point they took a trolley car prepared for them by Charles D. Tupper. Eighty young people composing the Sunbeam choir went aboard the car and were carried to the St. John church.

This choir of eighty voices was added to Mr. Pugh's Sunbeam choir of 100 voices at St. John church, and the music of the evening was pronounced the most unusual yet heard during the present revival.

Sixty persons were converted at the meeting and hundreds asked for prayer. Mr. Pugh's solo, "'Tis Blessed To Know That He Knows," thrilled his hearers greatly. Dr. Walton, in speaking of the meeting, said:

"Tonight's meeting was a most wonderful one. I am very thankful for it and believe it means much more blessed work for this section in the next few weeks. It was a heart-searching meeting."

MEETINGS FOR THE CHILDREN

Dr. Schaeffer Will Conduct Three Such Meetings Today.

Rev. C. T. Schaeffer will today conduct three big meetings for young people.

The first meeting will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon at Woodward Avenue Baptist church. The subject will be "The Ten Commandments and the Boy Who Broke Them."

The second meeting will be held at Central Presbyterian church at 4:30 o'clock and the same subject will be used. At night at 7:30 there will be a big meeting conducted by Dr. Shaeffer at the Wesley Memorial tabernacle. The talk of Dr. Schaeffer at this service will be illustrated with stereoptican, and O. F. Pugh, the Welsh tenor, will sing.

ASKS SPINNERS TO COME SOUTH

R. H. Edmonds Still Working for Visit to This Section.

Efforts are still being made to have the cotton manufacturers of Europe visit the south this winter. Richard H. Edmonds, editor and general manager of The Manufacturers' Record, is very much interested in the matter, and has been using his influence to have the manufacturers inspect this section of the country.

The invitation sent by Mayor Howell to the manufacturers has been forwarded, as have also those from other influential men of the south.

Several days ago, Walter G. Cooper, secretary of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, wrote Mr. Edmonds, asking for information regarding the matter. Mr. Cooper yesterday received the following reply from Mr. Edmonds:

"Baltimore, Md., October 18, 1904.—W. G. Cooper, Secretary Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta, Ga.—Dear Sir: Acknowledging the receipt of yours of October 12. I spent Saturday and a part of yesterday with Marshall Stevens, the organizer of the Manchester canal, and for some years its general manager. Mr. Stevens is, however, now giving his attention to personal matters connected with the development of Manchester, and is taking a very active interest in the effort to bring the cotton manufacturers of Europe to visit the south. He regards this as of vital interest, and believes that if the cotton manufacturers of England and the continent would come over and in person study the south they would see possibilities of cotton-growing in this section such as to interest them greatly in the largest development of the south.

"All of the invitations which were sent to me have been duly forwarded to the Federation of Master Cotton Spinners' Association, Manchester, and Mr. Stevens, who sails this morning for Manchester, will in person urge the matter upon the manufacturers of that city. Very truly yours,

"RICHARD H. EDMONDS,
"Editor and General Manager."

CAPTAIN HITCH DISMISSED FROM SERVICE OF STATE

ings and sentences of the court and official orders to that effect will be issued at once by Adjutant General S. W. Harris.

Captain Robert M. Hitch was ordered on August 15 last by the governor to select fifty men from the companies of the First infantry at Savannah, and two officers, and to report to Sheriff J. Z. Kendrick, of Bulloch county, in the jail in Savannah for the purpose of escorting to Statesboro two negroes, Reed and Cato, who were to be tried for the murder of the Hodges family near the Bulloch county seat.

Captain Hitch took with him Lieutenant George A. Mell and Lieutenant J. W. McIntyre, Jr., and the fifty men as directed and the prisoners were escorted to Statesboro. There Captain Hitch took command of all the troops, including company A, stationed at Statesboro and in command of First Lieutenant Charles A. Cone.

The history of how the two negroes were taken away from the troops after they had been tried, convicted and sentenced by Judge Daly to be hanged, and then burned at the stake by the mob, is everywhere well known.

A court of inquiry appointed to investigate the conduct of the troops at Statesboro was followed by a courtmartial appointed by Governor Terrell, which sat at Savannah during the week beginning October 10, and before which all of the officers who participated in the work of the troops at Statesboro, with the exception of Lieutenant McIntyre, were placed on trial.

With the presentation of its findings and sentences to the governor, through Adjutant General Harris, the courtmartial yesterday completed its work, and this has been approved in every particular by Governor Terrell. It now remains only for the adjutant general to carry out the sentences by the issuance of the requisite orders.

Case of Captain Hitch.

Captain Hitch, who was in command of the troops at Statesboro, and who was captured and disarmed by members of the mob, was found guilty by the courtmartial on all but one or two of the charges and specifications as set forth in the charges drawn up by Judge Advocate General George M. Napier.

An analysis of the findings of the court shows that he was found guilty of gross neglect of duty and errors of judgment, but that in no case was any criminality attached to his actions.

The first charge against Captain Hitch was conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in violation of the sixty-second article of war. Under this Captain Hitch was found guilty of the first specification in that he neglected and failed to obey that part of the governor's order which directed him to prevent mob violence to the prisoners, Reed and Cato, but not guilty of neglecting to obey any other portions of the governor's order.

The second specification charged Captain Hitch with failing to place a cordon about the court house and otherwise to properly guard the place of trial. On this he was found guilty, but the findings states that no criminality was attached to his failure to put out a cordon. Captain Hitch was found not guilty on the third specification under the charge, which charged him with failing to formulate any plans for the protection of the prisoners, with failing to consult with his junior officers as to plans, and with failing to take any steps to prevent being surprised by the mob.

In the fourth specification under charge one, he was found guilty of failing to order available reinforcements and failing to make further efforts to suppress mob violence after he had been surprised, captured and beaten by the mob. But he was found not guilty of the charge that he neglected to take proper precautions to prevent himself from being surprised and captured.

Captain Hitch was found guilty of the first specification under charge one, which charged him with giving improper and misleading commands while on riot duty and failing to take proper precaution with regard to the necessity of loading their guns in order to prevent mob violence.

Upon the first charge as a whole, the courtmartial found Captain Hitch not guilty.

The second charge against Captain Hitch "gross neglect of duty and inefficiency (and misbehavior before a riot) in violation of the sixty-second article of war."

Upon the charge as a whole the court found Captain Hitch not guilty, but declared him guilty of gross neglect of duty and inefficiency in violation of the sixty-second article of war."

The finding concludes with these words:

"And he, Captain Robert M. Hitch, Company I, First infantry, G. S. T., to be dismissed from the service of the state.

The Findings and Findings.

Following is a technical statement of the charges and findings of the court in the case of Captain Hitch:

Charge—Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline, in violation of the sixty-second article of war.

Specification 1—In that Captain Robert M. Hitch, company I, First infantry, G. S. T., commanding company A and other troops of First infantry, G. S. T., while on riot duty, failed and neglected to formulate any definite plans for the protection of two civil prisoners then on trial in the superior court of Bulloch county, Georgia, to-wit: one Reed and one Cato, and failed and neglected to consult with the junior officers of companies A, D and I, First infantry, G. S. T., who were on duty under his command, as to his plans for loading and firing, if the same should become necessary while on said riot duty; for bringing up and posting reinforcements; for signals in order to prevent surprise, and for the determined defense and protection of said civil prisoners, in case he, the said Captain Robert M. Hitch or any junior officer of said company, upon whom the command of any guard or defense might devolve, might be surprised or captured by the riotous mob then and there seeking to commit violence upon said civil prisoners. This at Statesboro, Ga., August 15 and 16, 1904.

Specification 2—In that Captain Robert M. Hitch, company I, First infantry, G. S. T., commanding company A and other troops of First infantry, G. S. T., while on riot duty, to prevent mob violence to persons on trial in the superior court of Bulloch county, Georgia, to-wit; one Reed and one Cato, failed to place a cordon of sentinels about the place of such trial, or to otherwise properly guard the place of said trial, whereby rioting and the capture and burning to death of said persons on trial by a riotous mob resulted. This at Statesboro, Ga., August 15 and 16, 1904.

Specification 3—In that Captain Robert M. Hitch, company I, First infantry, G. S. T., commanding company A and other troops of the First infantry, G. S. S. T., who were on duty under his command, as to his plans for loading and firing, if the same should become necessary while on said riot duty; for bringing up and posting reinforcements; for signals in order to prevent surprise, and for the determined defense and protection of said civil prisoners, in case he, the said Captain Robert M. Hitch or any junior officer of said company, upon whom the command of any guard or defense might devolve, might be surprised or captured by the riotous mob then and there seeking to commit violence upon said civil prisoners. This at Statesboro, Ga., August 15 and 16, 1904.

Specification 4—In that Captain Robert M. Hitch, company I, First infantry, G. S. T., commanding company A and other troops of First infantry, G. S. T., while on riot duty, neglected to take proper precaution to prevent himself from being surprised and captured by a mob of riotous persons, and upon being surprised, captured and beaten, failed to order available reinforcements, and made no further effort to prevent mob violence on the persons of certain parties, to-wit: one Reed and one Cato, then on trial before the superior court of Bulloch county, Georgia, whereby rioting and the capture and burning to death of said parties on trial, by a riotous mob, resulted. This at Statesboro, Ga., August 15 and 16, 1904.

Specification 5—In that Captain Robert M. Hitch, company I, First infantry, G. S. T., commanding company A and other troops of the First infantry, while on duty gave improper and misleading commands to the officers and men under him while on such riot duty, and failed to take proper precautions in regard to the necessity of loading and firing, if such necessity should arise, in order to prevent the execution of mob violence upon certain persons on trial before the superior court of Bulloch county, Georgia, to-wit: one Reed and one Cato, and for the defense of said officers and men while in the discharge of their duty. This at Statesboro, Ga., August 15 and 16, 1904.

Hitch had under his command an ample military force to rescue and protect said prisoners and to prevent the execution of mob violence upon them.

GEORGE M. NAPIER,
Colonel Judge Advocate General, Georgia State Troops.

Action of the Court.

The accused, his counsel and judge advocate then withdrew, and the court was closed, and finds the accused, Captain Robert M. Hitch, Company I, First infantry, Georgia State Troops:

Of the first specification, first charge: Guilty, in that he "did neglect and fail to obey" so much of the order set out in said specifications as follows, to-wit: "Captain Robert M. Hitch will adopt such measures as may be deemed proper to prevent mob violence to the prisoners, Cato and Reed, and preserve order, life and property;" but not guilty of the allegation that he did "disobey" said order; and not guilty of the allegation that he did neglect and fail to obey another part of said order than that above set out.

Of the second specification, first charge: Guilty, except the words, "Failed to place a cordon about the place of such trial,' and as to these words we find the facts true, but attach no criminality thereto.

Of the third specification, first charge: Not guilty.

Of the fourth specification, first charge: Guilty, except the words "neglected to take proper precautions to prevent himself from being surprised and captured by a mob of riotous persons," and of these words: Not guilty.

Of the fifth specification of the first charge: Guilty.

Of the first charge: Guilty.

Of the specification of the second charge: Guilty.

Of the second charge: Not guilty, but guilty of gross neglect of duty and inefficiency, in violation of the sixty-second article of war.

And sentence him, Captain Robert M. Hitch, Company I, First infantry, Georgia state troops, to be dismissed the service of the state.

Case of Lieutenant Mell.

First Lieutenant George A. Mell, company I, First infantry, was found guilty only of "conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in violation of the sixty-second article of war," and in concluding its finding in his case the court martial used the following words:

"And sentences him, First Lieutenant George A. Mell, company I, First infantry, Georgia state troops, to be suspended from rank, command and duty for the period of one year, and to be publicly reprimanded."

Lieutenant Mell will be publicly reprimanded simply by the issuance of an order by Adjutant General Harris, which order will be published to the militia throughout the state. In the same way Captain Hitch will be dismissed from the service.

Upon the first charge, which alleged that Lieutenant Mell neglected to take his detachment to the assistance of the force at the court house and thereby violated the sixty-second article of war, he was found not guilty.

Lieutenant Mell was found guilty of the first specification under the second charge, in that he made no effort to rescue and protect the prisoners after they were in the hands of the mob. He was found not guilty of the second specification, which charged that when Lieutenant McIntyre wanted to go to the rescue of the prisoners, he advised and counseled against it and deterred him from it.

Of the second charge, which implied neglect of duty, inefficiency and misbehavior before a mob, he was found not guilty, except that he was held to be guilty of conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline and sentenced as stated.

Reprimand for Griner.

Lieutenant Henry L. Griner, of company A, stationed at Statesboro, was charged with quitting his guard without leave and thereby violating the fortieth article of war; with shamefully abandoning his post or guard, in violation of the forty-second article of war, and in assuming authority to leave his command and telegraph for reinforcements without orders in violation of the sixty-second article of war.

Lieutenant Griner was found not guilty of the first two charges, but guilty of the third, and was sentenced to be publicly reprimanded. This reprimand will be administered by order issued by the adjutant general, in the same manner in which the other cases will be dealt with.

Cone and Morrison Acquitted.

First Lieutenant Charles A. Cone, of company A, and First Lieutenant A. A. Morrison, assistant surgeon, were acquitted of all the charges against them.

The charges against Lieutenant Cone comprised conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in that he allowed his men to be rushed upon and disarmed without giving any order for their protection, in failing to assume command as next in rank after Captain Hitch had been captured and disarmed by the mob, and in quitting his guard without leave in violation of the fortieth article of war.

The charges against Lieutenant Morrison were comprised under conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline in violation of the sixty-second article of war, in that he interfered with Second Lieutenant J. W. McIntyre and induced him to abandon his purpose of firing upon the mob with a view to rescuing the prisoners.

SOON TO BUILD NEW RAILROAD

Gainesville Joins Fight for Better Freight Rates.

Gainesville, Ga., October 21.—(Special.) Gainesville is to have a new railroad. As to who will build it cannot be definitely stated at present, but in all likelihood it will be constructed by the Southern railway.

It is to run from Gainesville westward to a point on the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern and perhaps thence to Rome. In fact, the survey made last year by the Southern was from Gainesville to Keith's ferry, Silver City, Barrettsville and Ledbetter's bridge, connecting with the Atlanta, Knoxville and Northern at either Ball Ground, Nelson or Tate, proceeding thence to Rome via Cartersville.

This would give Gainesville a western outlet and such a road would develop the large and untold marble deposits in Cherokee county, the vast farming interests of Forsyth, Dawson and Cherokee counties, the iron and manganese deposits of Bartow.

Gainesville is certain of a competitive eastern connection at an early date. George J. Baldwin and his associates, who recently purchased the old Gainesville, Jefferson and Southern railway, now known as the Gainesville Midland railway, are soon to begin the construction of 18 miles of track from Jefferson, Jackson county, to Athens, Clarke county.

At Athens connection will be made with the Seaboard, the Central of Georgia and the Georgia railroads.

A committee of citizens was appointed to confer with the city council and work with them in an effort to get the railroads to give Gainesville better freight rates. This committee will take up the matter with the railroad authorities at once, and urge them to give them immediate relief.

DENETT TAKEN TO INFIRMARY.

Wife of Unfortunate Man Visits Him at the Police Barracks.

A sad scene presented itself yesterday afternoon about 5 o'clock in a cell corridor at police headquarters when the wife of Arthur Denett, the traveling man who was placed under arrest at the Piedmont hotel, his mind having become deranged, walked to the bars which separated her from her her husband.

Mrs. Denett was in Savannah when her husband suddenly lost his mind, and took the first train home when she learned of his condition. She arrived shortly after 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Denett resides at 210 West Fair street, and had been on a trip to Macon before his present condition developed.

The reason given for his mental aberation is that some few years ago he received a terrible blow on the head, while aiding the police of New York in a crusade against vice which was threatening in the tenderloin district of the big metropolis. The first signs of its effect are said to have shown itself this past summer when Denett and his wife were on a pleasure trip. He noticed a strange dizziness in his head, but thought nothing of it.

Denett is a lawyer and practiced in New York city until a short while ago.

His wife wished to carry him to her home, but it was thought safer to remove him to a private sanatorium.

Upon advice of Dr. Wilkins, city physician, Denett was last night carried to the Baptist Tabernacle infirmary.

CHILD IS TAKEN FROM FLAMES

Sleeping Infant Was Left in Burning House.

Residences of Albert Shields and V. L. Johns, on Connally Street, Destroyed by Fire at Early Hour Yesterday Morning.

The residences of Albert Shields and V. L. Johns, at 58 and 60 Connally street, respectively, were entirely consumed by fire yesterday morning at an early hour, and the houses occupied by A. R Butchers and family, at 54, of the same street, and 62, occupied by Misses Bush, were both damaged. The loss is estimated at about $5,000

The conflagration of the two houses came near resulting in the loss of several lives. The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Shields would have perished in the flames had not some bystander rushed into the burning residence and rescued the child. The name of the man who made the heroic dash through the burning timbers could not be obtained. Mr. and Mrs. Shields, in their excitement, each thought the other had gotten the boy. The mistake was only discovered after they reached the street, in their night dress. Mrs. Shields uttered a pitiable scream after reaching the sidewalk, and when the unknown man learned the reason he went after the boy.

The Johns home is a two-story building, and was filled with sleeping boarders. As soon as they were awakened from their slumbers by the fire and smoke and the gong of the fire engines they made a rush for their lives in night clothes, taking time to snatch only a few things about the rooms.

One man was so badly frightened in his flight that he grabbed his coat, thinking it was his trousers, and did not discover his mistake until his legs protruded where his hands should have.

The fire was discovered by a person passing along the street. He saw a flame lick into the air from the Shields residence, and, rushing against the front door, broke it in, and yelled "Fire!"

Instantly Mr. and Mrs. Shields were aroused and rushed half clad into the street. The material of which the houses were built was very inflammable, and in a few minutes the flames from the Shields residence had reached the house next door. In a very short time the Shields and Johns residences were a solid mass of fire. The street was soon full of people shrouded in night clothes and neighbors about the neighborhood housed them. All effects were lost.

It is not known how the fire started, but it is thought to have been caused from a defective flue at 68 Connally street.

The Shields residence was fully covered by insurance.

TRIED TO PASS FORGED CHECK

J. R. George Nabbed in Store of Essig Bros. Yesterday.

J. R. George, a young white man, who gives his residence as Forrest Park, Ga., was arrested last night at 6 o'clock by Officer Bass at the instance of Essig Bros., clothiers on Whitehall street, charged with trying to pass a forged check for $25 on them.

Young George is a well dressed man, and says that he is innocent.

The check which he is charged with forging was made out on the Neal Loan and Banking Company. At police headquarters last night, George said that the check was given to him by a white man, Will Adams. He said that Adams borrowed $15 from him some time ago, and yesterday they met in the postoffice. Adams offered him the check in question, and he gave Adams $10 in silver.

George went to Essig Bros. last night and made a purchase. He handed them the check. One of the clerks requested him to wait a moment. The former left the store and shortly returned with an officer and two officials of the bank on which the check was drawn.

George has telegraphed his father at Forrest Park.

WOMAN KILLED BY CHILDREN

Young Higgins Intercepted Letter from Mrs. Thomason To His Father.

Peoria, Ills., October 21.—Mrs. Nellie Thomason, wife of a former prominent real estate dealer, is dead, at Lacon, as the result of injuries received in a sensational encounted with Richard and Jennie Higgins, children of John G. Higgins, a supervisor of Peoria county, and prominent in political circles.

The Higgins children intercepted a letter written to Higgins, Sr., by Mrs. Thomason, in which she asked him to meet her in the Rock Island depot. Higgins was in St. Louis and his son opened the letter. The missive asked Higgins to be in the waiting room.

Mrs. Thomason arrived and was confronted by young Higgins and his sister. What took place is a mystery, as only the three, and an uncle of Higgins, were present. Some time later, however, the woman asked C. A. Brant, the ticket agent, to assist her to the train. He did so and when she was gone he discovered the floor of the waiting room covered with blood. The woman lingered in great agony at her home in Lacon until she died.

Young Higgins is under arrest on a state warant charging him with murder.

Mrs. Thomason had laid in a comatose condition many hours, rallying enough to speak a word or two at a time. Her lip was severely bruised, both eyes blackened and her shoulder displaced. Her back was covered with bruises and she was internally injured. Dr. John Potts, the atending physician, was unable to rouse the patient sufficiently to get a last statement, although this was attempted by Judge Richmond, of Marshall county, at whose suggestion the Peoria authorities arrested young Higgins. Higgins wept when placed in jail.

"We had been trying for years to break up the relations between my father and this woman," he said.

"When we got that letter, my sister and I went down there to see if we could not make some arangements with her. We met her in the waiting room. I went up to her and touched her on the shoulder.

"'Mrs. Thomas, I believe,' I said.

"She turned quickly, and said:

"'Oh, it's you, is it?' and drew out her hat pin. I then pushed her sharply against the side of the face and knocked her over a chair. My sister then pulled me away and told me that I would be arested; that we could not do anything with her. That's all there was to it."

His sister corroborated the foregoing statement.

SOCIETY

Miss Van Epps' Debut.

THE brilliant event of the passing week was the reception and dancing party given by Judge and Mrs. Howard Van Epps last night for their daughter, Minnie, who was formally introduced on this occasion to the world of society.

One hundred and fifty or more of the unmarried contingent were entertained with a beautiful hospitality, every feature of the evening, from the gracious spirit of the event to the smaller decorative detail, contributing to the evening's complete pleasure.

The debutante, a charming young woman, full of graces, and one of the handsomest of the attractive group who will this winter make their first appearance in the social world, received with her mother, and assisting them was her guest, Miss Sadie Cranston, of Augusta, another pretty debutante. Miss Van Epps was daintily gowned in white chiffon embroidered in forget-me-nots, Miss Cranston wore white point d'esprit, and Mrs. Van Epps was handsome in white crepe de chine and lace. Miss Rosina Thomas and Miss Isabel Fleming, of Athens, who are visiting Miss Van Epps, received much admiration, Miss Thomas wearing white chiffon and Miss Fleming pink crepe de chine.

Little Misses Sarah Rawson and Adeline Thomas served punch.

The house was tastefully decorated, principally in palms and smilax, which were used in profusion. In the drawing room, where the receiving party stood, the only cut flowers were the numerous bouquets of roses and chrysanthemums presented to the debutante. In the hall yellow chrysanthemums were effective against the foliage plants, and the chandeliers had yellow tulip shades. The dining room was fresh and beautiful in white and green, chrysanthemums being showily used in large vases, and on the center table the punch bowl was placed. It rested in a bed of smilax and its sides were festooned with green grapes.

Wurm's orchestra provided delightful music, and the evening was in every way a memorably enjoyable one.

MISS BESSIE BAXTER'S card party this afternoon will be a large and brilliant affair, a compliment to Miss Inez Sledge and Miss Lucy Lowry, two of the autumn brides. Winter-Taylor.

A PRETTY home wedding on Thursday was that of Miss Jennie Winter and Mr. C. M. Taylor, which took place in the afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. E. Kauffmann, on Currier street.

The occasion was a simple one, Dr. Reynolds officiating impressively, and there were present to witness the ceremony only the families and a few relatives.

The bride was becomingly attired in a brown traveling suit, the hat matching the gown, and she carried a bouquet of bride roses. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Taylor left for a visit to Florida.

Voss-Fife.

AN announcement of interest to many friends was the marriage Wednesday evening of Miss Leila Belle Voss, of Roswell, to Mr William Berry Fife. The ceremony was solemnized at the home of the bride's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Philip J. Voss, on Crew street, the Rev. J. H. Mashburn officiating. The wedding, though quiet, was very beautiful, and witnessed only by relatives. The young couple are quite popular, and have a large circle of friends who will congratulate them. They will be at home to their friends at 31 Hood street.

Hardin-Fickett.

MR. AND MRS. T. J. HARDIN, of Forsyth, Ga., announce the engagement of their daughter, Annewill, to Mr. R. N. Fickett, Jr., of Atlanta, the wedding to occur early in December.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

The rooms of the Young Women's Christian Association are being used more and more all the time as reading and rest rooms, and are filling a great need of the business women of Atlanta, and of those who wish a pleasant rest and reading room down town while waiting to meet friends, or during shopping hours.

The dining room of the Young Women's Christian Association the last four days has had the largest patronage in its history of two years and a half. Monday noon the attendance was 152.

There are classes in Spanish under the instruction of Mr. Stanford and prospective applicants for civil service at the April examinations will be coached by Professor Caldwell. Applications for membership in the stenography and bookkeeping classes should be sent in at once.

The classes at the gymnasium are fast filling. So often there is indecision which class to join that The Association News this week says: "If you are not engaged during the morning, join the 10 o'clock class Monday and Thursday; if you are engaged in the morning, join the 4:30 class Monday and Thursday; if you are engaged all day, join the 5:30 class Tuesday and Friday or the gymnasium club Tuesday. Grammar school girls should come at 3 o'clock Monday and Thursday."

One of the most practical features of the work carried on by the association is the boarding school directory. Those desiring boarders or lodgers leave notice at the office, and those looking for accommodation apply to the directory.

The home of the association was opened Monday, October 10, at No. 141 Spring street. On next Wednesday, from 10 until 2 o'clock, there will be a reception at the home, and all the ladies of Atlanta are invited to be present. As there has been a great deal of expense in furnishing and establishing this home, at this time there will be an opportunity given all who are interested to make a free-will offering, either in money or in articles that will help toward the furnishing. There is great need at present of small table covers, dresser scarfs and the smaller linen pieces, rugs, pictures, or anything to make the place attractive and homelike.

Woman's Exchange.

The ladies of the First Christian church will continue the work of the Woman's Exchange every Saturday afternoon from 2 until 6 o'clock, at 132 Whitehall street. Today there will be on sale home-made cake, chicken salad, beaten biscuit, lightbread, potato chips and doughnuts.

Meetings.

The Atlanta Psychological Society, Robert Bryan Harrison, president, will meet Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, sharp, at room 415 Austell building. Subject for discussion, "How to Be Healthy and Happy."

Social Items.

Judge and Mrs. William Frederick Eve, of Augusta, have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Allie Walton, to Mr. Henry Eldridge Cabaniss, on the evening of Thursday, November 3, at their home, Sandhills, Augusta.

Mrs. Charles Lednum and Miss Kitty Malone, of Dallas, Tex., return home today.

RAILWAY NOTES.

That the Union Pacific is not in any danger of going to the poor house is shown by the pamphlet report of that road's business for the fiscal year ending June 30 last, this pamphlet having been just issued. Among other things it shows the road to have gained over $2,500,000 in its net earnings.

The following statement with regard to the report was received from New York yesterday:

New York, October 21.—The pamphlet report of the Union Pacific Railroad Company for the fiscal year ended June 30 last, issued today, shows:

Gross earnings $55,279,231, increase $4,204,042; operating expenses $29,026,007, increase $1,686,723; net earnings $26,252,624, increase $2,517,319.

After receipt of other income and payment of total charges there remained a surplus for the year of $4,713,456, a decrease of $230,518.

The report sets forth that owing to the decrease in the Northern Securities Company's suit, the Oregon Short Line has been unable to collect its Northern Securities dividends since February 1 last.

There were sold during the year $10,000,000 face value Union Pacific Railroad Company's 5 per cent collateral notes maturing February 1, 1905; the proceeds were used in further advances to the Southern Pacific company in the construction of and investment of new lines in the completion of the steamships Manchuria and Mongolia and in the purchase of other equipment.

Mr. Clements was connected with the Seaboard Air Line for nineteen years, and when he left that road to go with the Ocean Steamship Company he held the position of traveling passenger agent. MISSES' SHIRT WAIST SUIT.

An especially becoming costume for the young girl is here portrayed, and one that adapts itself to many materials. The skirt is pleated to within flounce depth and has a well-shaped yoke that may be omitted if desired. The blouse waist closes in duchess style and pleats extend from shoulder to waist line in front. An attractive feature is the large collar that extends over the shoulders and forms a sailor collar in the back finished by a broad silk tie in front. Brown Sicilian would develop nicely in this style, and would be a smart and serviceable dress. Other materials could also be used, such as cashmere, cheviot, albatross and challis. The medium size requires two and three-quarter yards of 36-inch material for the waist and three and five-eighths yards for the skirt.

Misses' shirt waist, No. 5105; sizes for 12, 14 and 16 years.

Misses' skirt, No. 5110; sizes for 12, 14 and 16 years.

TECH IS READY FOR TENNESSEE

Real Opening of Football Season Will Come Today.

Game Will Be Called at 3:30 O'Clock at Piedmont Park—Tennessee Confident That the Game Will Be Close and Interesting.

With the arrival of the Tennessee football team, sixteen strong, yesterday morning, came the real opening of the football season in Atlanta.

This afternoon these Tennessee players will try their strength against the Tech eleven, and if Tech wins, as she is expected to, then there is nothing to do but place her in the first rank in the football of the south.

The game is expected to be close. Tennessee is nearer the match of the Tech than any team which has yet faced her. The eleven is backed up by the records made by elevens of the past. It is not the representative of some unknown college in the football world, knocking at the doors asking an entrance, nor is it a prep school like Mooney, to yield to the Blacksmiths without a struggle.

If Tech rolls up three or four touchdowns against this team, and escapes without having her line crossed by an invader she will be doing all her supporters can expect of her. And if she does this much she will have done well.

There are few now who doubt the strength of the locals, and there are few who do not believe that in the struggle today she will come out the victor. Tech defense and Tech offense, notably the latter, has improved wonderfully in the past few weeks. The fighting spirit which is common to a Heisman team has become instilled in the Tech, and every game from now on will witness the very hardest kind of fighting for a victory.

Tech interference has strengthened. Tech runners are getting off quicker with the ball and running harder than before. Two things must be done to stop Tech from scoring. Either the opposing line must charge quickly enough to break up the play before it starts, or the ends of Tennessee must be swift enough to nail the runner as he is under way.

The Blacksmiths do not believe that there are ends fast and sure enough in the south to break up their interference and nab the runner, and the linemen of the Tech are improving every day.

Tennessee looks a worthy opponent. The men all look happy, say nothing, do little bragging, but expect to put Tech out of the running today.

Coach Crawford stated last night that his team was in fine shape and expected to have a close hard fight today. "I feel much encouraged," said he, "on account of the good spirits of my men." I think the score will be small, and the game close. In the Nashville game we were satisfied with the result. It just seemed that things broke against us at the unlucky moment."

The Tennessee team is heavy. The men look like players and will undoubtedly give Tech all she wants today.

The line-up follows:

TENNESSEE.	Position.	TECH.
Caldwell	center	Gregg
Paffar	right guard	Red Wilson
Word	left guard	Burns
Fox	right tackle	Thrash
Thornton	left tackle	Moore
Shaw	right half	Hamilton
Parker	full back	Clarke
Watkins	quarter back	Butler

Tennessee substitutes: Richardson, Proctor, McAllister. Rooters: Little, Caldwell, Junior, Grim, Fuller.

The Tennessee boys will return home next Sunday, and will begin practice for a game with Sewanee, at Knoxville, October 29. The University of Alabama will be played at Birmingham on Thanksgiving day. The Tennessee team will go to Cincinnati November 16, to play the University of Cincinnati team. Negotiations are now in progress for a game with Washington university at St. Louis.

Mile and Half Mile Pole Records Smashed at Memphis Track.

BILLINGS HELD REINS OVER BOTH FAST PAIRS

Prince Direct and Morning Star Took Half Second from Half Mile, While The Monk and Equity Clipped Quarter from Mile.

Memphis, October 21.—Two world's records were broken today at the Memphis driving park. C. K. G. Billings, of Chicago, was the driver in each event.

Prince Direct and Morning Star, driven to pole, lowered the pacing record to pole for half a mile of 1:0[illegible] by stepping the distance in 1:00¾.

A high wind was blowing up the stretch which prevented Dan Patch, Major Delmar and Charley Mac from being sent against time, as scheduled. After finishing the half in their attempt against the record Prince Direct and Morning Star were continued around the course rounding out the mile in 2:05 unofficial time, which equals the pacing record for that distance held by Prince Direct and Direct Hal.

TROPHY CUP WILL BE GIVEN.

Three Companies of Atlanta Militia Will Be Contestants for This Cup.

The annual shoot for the Atlanta trophy cup, which will be contested for this year by the Governor's Horse Guard, the Atlanta Grays and the Atlanta Rifles will come off this afternoon at the Lakewood rifle range.

This cup was purchased with money raised by a general subscription for the purpose of securing a cup to be contested for every year by the different companies of local militia.

For three years the Governor's Horse Guard won the cup in succession and then five years passed in which there was no challenge for the trophy. Last year the Atlanta Grays took the matter up, challenged the holders, made a valiant spurt for the trophy cup, but finished outside the money by a small margin.

The conditions of the match will be five men to a team, and ten shots for each man at 200 yards, 500 yards and 600 yards.

COLLEGE TEAMS REFUSE TO PLAY

Savannah Athletic Club Is Having Trouble in Getting Games.

According to The Savannah Morning News, the games which were to be played this season between the Georgia School of Technology and the Savannah Athletic Club, and the University of Georgia football eleven and the Savannah eleven, have been cancelled by the college managements on the grounds that professionals are playing on the Savannah team.

Which fact leads The News to say: "With the refusal of the athletic council of the Georgia School of Technology and the University of Georgia to allow the football teams to engage in a game with the Savannah team it is interesting to note the strenuous efforts that are apparently being made to avoid all professionalism. Those who really know the situation laugh at this. Amateurism has become as much of a joke in the south as it has in the north."

The statement that the games to be played by the two college teams mentioned with the Savannah Athletic Club have been canceled comes as a surprise to the lovers of the sport in the south, as up to date no announcement to this effect has been made by the college managers. The Tech managers arranged the game with Savannah only a couple of weeks ago as a substitute game for the one which was canceled by the North Carolina Agricultural and Mechanical college.

With the University of Georgia it was hoped that the Savannah game would become one of its fixtures on the schedule, as Georgia has more supporters in Savannah than in any other city in the state outside of Atlanta, and the Georgia athletic authorities wished to keep these alumni and supporters in touch with Georgia athletics by allowing them to see one game a year.

The statement made by The News in regard to professionalism is undoubtedly true to some extent at least. There is but little doubt that numbers of the most prominent college athletes in the south today would be disqualified under the strict rulings of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. The only trouble is that it would be extremely difficult to secure proof. In only one way is it possible. That is the rule requiring all college baseball players to play on home teams only during the summer months. This rule was too often violated last summer.

LEAGUE FORMED FOR BASEBALL

Indoor League Organized Yesterday Morning at the Piedmont Club.

An indoor baseball league was organized yesterday morning at the Piedmont Athletic Club.

The meeting was held at 11 o'clock. It was attended by Coach Heisman, representing the Piedmont Athletic Club; George Adair, representing the Atlanta Athletic Club; Tas Short, of the firemen, and Director Weems, of the Young Men's Christian Association.

It was decided to start playing the week of November 28. Each club will play five games with the other, making a schedule of fifteen games for each club in the league. The contests will be held in the gymnasiums of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Piedmont Athletic Club and the Atlanta Athletic Club.

John Dickinson, of the Southern Belting Company, was elected president of the league. A good deal of enthusiasm was manifested at the meeting.

The teams which will represent all four clubs have been chosen, and are hard at work for their coming season.

A practice contest will take place Thursday night at the Atlanta Athletic Club between two picked teams of that club. Admittance will be by invitation.

BAYNE DRAFTED BY ROCHESTER

Southern Stars Falling Before Hand of Class A Reapers.

One of the first acts of the Class A reapers was to take away from the Gate City another of her star twirlers, one who was depended on to take an active part in bringing the flag home next season.

Bayne is the one selected to take a higher seat at the table, and Rochester is the class A club securing the plum.

Whether Bayne will go or not remains to be seen. It has often been stated that Bayne would prefer staying in the south to such an extent that he was willing to quit organized baseball if drafted and go to work in Georgia pitching for different cities through the state.

Of course there is a chance that he will keep at this work and finally wear out the patience of the northern managers. Still inducements might be offered to him sufficient to cause him to go north. The road to greater achievements in a baseball line lie that way.

The last bulletin of Secretary Farrell contains the information that Bayne was first secured by Atlanta and then drafted from Atlanta. Manager Powell makes a little money out of the deal anyway.

Another pleasant bit of information for the Southern League fans and another proof of Manager Frank's cuteness lies in the fact that New Orleans has secured Welch, of Savannah, for next season. That is, unless some other class A club decides to do some work in the fountain pen way.

Other pleasing information to New Orleans and to Montgomery. Rickert has been taken by the Kansas City club in the Western League and Ire Durrett will be given a try out next season by St. Paul. Poor St. Paul.

Gus Hetling has been released by Springfield to Little Rock. Ed Lauzon has accepted terms with the Augusta club. Butler, late of Memphis, has been drafted by the St. Paul club. Howard Murphy, the youngster secured from Pine Bluff by Memphis, has been drafted by the Louisville club.

That Mike Finn had informed Mike Kelly, his bosom friend, of the value of the Southern Leaguers, is shown by the fact that Mike has drafted or tried to draft, probably the latter, Durrett, from Montgomery, Bayne, of Macon, and Welch, of Savannah.

Highly Indorsed.

Rev. Walker Lewis, the well-known Methodist minister, writes: "I have used Dr. Mozley's Lemon Elixir in my family with very beneficial results. It is an admirable medicine and excellent as a tonic and liver regulator.

GIVES MUSEUM TO KANSAS CITY

Augusta Man Presents Fine Curio Collection to Library.

Augusta, Ga., October 21.—Colonel D. B. Dyer, of this city, has presented his collection of Indian relics, valued at $200,000, to Kansas City, to be incorporated in the public library there.

The collection is considered the most valuable in private ownership in the country, and has taken thirty-five years to gather it.

The number of articles is something over 12,000, comprising prehistoric remains from the American continent, a lot of pottery and Indian relics from old Mexico, a collection made by Dr. Irvin Bachmann, and the entire collection of the late Rear Admiral L. A. Beardslee, U. S. N.

Some of the most famous Indians in history owned articles in the collection. There are relics from the General Custer massacre, Wounded Knee, the battle of Wichita, the chiefs, including Sitting Bull, Little Chief, Black Kettle, Dull Knife, Wild Horse, Chief Joseph and Captain Jack, chief of the Modocs.

The entire lot will be exhibited in the Kansas City library annex and will be known as the Daniel B. Dyer museum.

BARON GOLFERS HERE FOR MATCH

Piedmont Golf Club and Birmingham Golfers Play Today.

The Piedmont Golf Club of Atlanta will play the representatives of the Birmingham Golf Club this afternoon in thirty-six-hole matches on the Piedmont Golf Club links.

This meet was intended to be a three-cornered affair, but owing to the failure of Anniston to show up, will become a contest between two clubs.

Early in April a three-cornered golf match was arranged to take place in Birmingham between these three cities. After that meeting all three clubs agreed to play another match in Atlanta, but as the Anniston club has not responded to the invitation to be present today, it is not believed that they will turn up.

The representatives of the two clubs will be as follows:

Piedmont—Angier, Tilson, Byrd, Langson, Dargan, Goddard and Hill.

Birmingham—Tom Ward, Stiles, Thach, R. H. Baugh, W. P. Ward, Watson and Brown.

More interest is being taken in golf this year than ever before. Up to this year the membership of the Atlanta club has seldom exceeded forty. This season there are ninety members of the club, some seventy being active. Besides this there are a number of visitors on the links almost every day.

G. M. A. DOWNS HIGH SCHOOL.

The Score Was 10 to 0 After a Snappy, Interesting Game at College Park.

The Boys' High school eleven, coached by Mr. Parks, once the star of the Auburn team, invaded College Park yesterday afternoon and were scratched by the claws of the Georgia Military academy Tigers to the score of 10 to 0.

The game was snappy and interesting throughout, and at times it seemed that the score would be larger than it was. But twice during the game with the goal almost gained the ball was lost on fumbles, secured by High school boys, and rushed back out of danger.

The stars of the Georgia Military academy eleven were Oglesby at full back, Ensign in the line, Christian at quarter and Smith and Coe. For the Boys' High school the work of McCarty, captain of the team, was excellent.

This is the second game of the prep season for the Georgia Military academy boys, though they have played one game with the Tech scrubs. The game with the Tech scrubs was won by the Techites, score 11 to 0. The next contest was in Barnesville, where the game went to the Barnesville eleven, 5 to 0. Jack Bower and T. J. Simmons are coaching the Georgia Military academy.

Monday afternoon, Donald Fraser and the Peacock's eleven will line up for their first real scrimmage of the season. A number of practice games have been played before, but this is the first to count for the prep championship of Georgia.

The soldier eleven at Fort McPherson is complaining that it is hard to find teams to play them in the south. The other elevens have little desire to run up against the heavy soldiers. A trip is contemplated, however, to Jacksonville and to Macon.

ATLANTA RIDER EXPECTED HOME

Walthour Will Probably Reach Atlanta Today or Tomorrow.

Robert Walthour, champion bicycle rider of the world, is expected home either today or tomorrow.

Gus Castle received a letter from him yesterday stating that he would leave France for American October 14, and his friends are of the opinion that he will reach the city in a day or so at least.

He was called home rather earlier than expected on account of the death of his mother in law, Mrs. Kah, which occurred several days ago. He intended to stay in Europe several weeks longer.

Since leaving America Walthour has covered himself with new honors, and while he has met with several defeats, they were due more to the fault of his motor than to any lack of speed or skill on the part of the Atlanta rider. His most important victories won abroad were won in London, where he won the world's championship, and in Berlin, where he took down another big prize. As these were the two most important races of the year in Europe, he has every reason to be satisfied with what he accomplished.

It is probable that Walthour will race Hugh McLean in Atlanta at the Piedmont Stadium on Thanksgiving night. Arrangements are being made to bring about this meeting.

Walthour has not yet positively decided as to whether he will enter the six-day race in New York or not. It is possible, however, that he will be an entry. It is said that if he goes in, his partner will be Bennie Munro, with whom he won this honor last season.

SPOILED MEAT FOR SAUSAGE.

Two Butchers Arrested Yesterday by Sanitary Inspector Wasser.

Cases have been made against Charles H. Meckel, a Highland avenue butcher, and A. C. Mann, who conducts a shop on Decatur street, by Sanitary Inspector Wasser, charging the two men with having on hand stale and unfit meats with the purpose of making sausage of the same.

According to the statement of Inspector Wasser, Meckel had a tub of meat ready to be ground into sausage when he appeared on the scene. Mr. Wasser says that the tub contained some good meat, together with a lot of old tallow, spoiled meat which had been discarded from use and also some entrails.

Meckel says that he did not know that the tub contained anything but good meat and if it did his employees were responsible for it.

SUPPLY OF COTTON EXCEEDS DEMAND

The Movement Into Sight Shows Unprecedented Pigures.

WEAKENS THE RAW MATERIAL

Spot Interests Hammer the Market and Bring About a Daily Decline—Yesterday It Was 6 to 10 Points.

WEEKLY CHRONICLE'S REPORT ON WEATHER

Following is The New York Financial Chronicle's weekly weather and crop report, received over private leased wire by Messrs. Cothran & Co.:

"New York, October 21.—Telegraphic advices to us from the south this evening denote that during the week practically over the whole south the conditions are continuing favorable for gathering the crop. In the southwest rains have fallen in some districts, but the precipitation has as a rule been light. Elsewhere dry weather has been quite general. Picking has made excellent progress, and marketing has been quite liberal."

New York, October 21.—The cotton market opened steady at an advance of 2@3 points on moderate covering. Cables were a little better than expected and the early weather reports were rather unfavorable. Storms were reported from the easten belt and private wires indicated frosts at certain points in Texas, Mississippi and Alabama. This probably caused the early hesitation and brought in some covering by shorts and a little demand through wire houses. But reports from the southern spot markets continued unfavorable, and shortly after the opening it became apparent that large spot interests were hammering prices in the local market. The list turned easier and ruled unsettled pretty much all the rest of the session. The close was steady in tone owing to an increased demand by shorts, but prices were at practically the lowest a net decline of 6@10 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. Philadelphia interests were believed to be persistent sellers during the entire session.

New Orleans Cotton Market.

New Orleans, October 21.—In the spot cotton market a fair business was done at somewhat easier prices; sales 5,400 bales, including 3,000 to arrive and 100 f. vo. b. Quotations ⅛c lower.

Futures opened steady at an advance of 2 to 3 points. Liverpool was better than expected and New York opened a few points up. After the opening the market was very firm, but aggressive selling and the into-sight estimate strfiengthened bearish sentiment and prices were vigorously hammered. At the highest the active positions were 2 to 5 points higher than the close of yesterday. At the lowest they were 12 to 2' points below. The market closed easy with net losses of 11 to 15 points.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, October 21.—The operations in dry goods show little increase, and the day has not been propitous for active ordering in either primary or jobbing market. Increasing firmness seems to characterize the attitude of sellers, who are not willing to operate as far ahead as in th epast owing to the possibilities of the raw material.

Cothran & Co.

WHEAT has been strong and active throughout the session and has been influenced by the action of the northwestern markets, where prices show marked advances. The foreign situation cuts little figure with our prices. The home wants are about the only factor. The trade hinges its belief on that prices must go higher. It was another instance of big elevator concerns taking all offerings around bottom prices with the crowd selling it, and in their efforts to cover the market advanced.

CORN—The trade was rather slow until late in the day, when it gained some strength, influenced by the weather conditions and advance in wheat. There is still a congestion in the December kind, and cash stuff is in fair request.

OATS have been firm, although trade is limited to the local contingent. The country offerings have been curtailed somewhat, but cannot see any special demand for cash. Neavy hedging sales still continues to be a check to any but a temporary advance.

PROVISIONS—Prices have been well maintained today. Western packers led in the buying of pork and ribs. Cudahy brokers took lard and ribs. Selling was by local operators at the advances.

FLOUR SITUATION QUITE BULLISH

That and a Good Cash Demand Helped Prices Considerably.

CLOSE FOR WHEAT STRONG

December and May Options Each Closed 3-4c Higher—Corn Gained 3-8c to 1-2c and Oats 1-2c—Provisions 5 to 15c Higher.

Chicago, October 21.—Big flour sales and continued good cash demand today helped prices of wheat for futures considerably. A net gain of 3-4c was made in both December and May options. Corn is up 3-8@1-2c; oats show a gain of 1-2c. Provisions are up 5@15c.

At the opening, sentiment in the wheat market was quite weak, as a result of considerable scattered selling. The principal cause of the selling pressure was a report of increased shipments from Argentina and a resultant decline in all foreign grain markets. Initial quotations on December were off 3-8@1-2c at $1.13 7-8@1.14 1-4. May was down at 1-4@3-8c at $1.12 7-8. On the decline, pit traders were fair buyers. Offerings became lighter as the trading progressed and a firmer feeling developed. With the acute edge seemed off the milling demand, cash wheat was firm in all markets. The flour situation was still quite bullish. A report by a St. Louis trade paper stated that prevailing weather had been ideal for the propagation of the Hessian fly, and the pest had made its appearance in the wheat fields of Illinois, Misouri and Kansas. The winter wheat crop on the whole, however, according to this authority, has been making seasonable growth. A part of the late buying was attributable to this report. An advance in prices at Minneapolis and Duluth had also considerable influence on the market here late in the day. During the last hour of trading there was a good demand from shorts and the market was strong. At the close, December sold at $1.15 3-8@1.15 1-2. Final quotations on May were at $1.14 1-4@1.14 3-8. Clearances were 19,000 barrels flour. Primary receipts were 1,036,000, compared with 1,041,000 bushels a year ago. Exports of wheat and flour for the week, according to Bradstreet's, were equal to 1,066,000 bushels. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 795 cars, against 896 last week and 668 cars a year ago.

Strength of wheat was the main influence affecting corn. Trading was quiet the greater part of the day. December opened 1-8@3-8c lower at 48@48 1-4c, sold between 47 7-8c and 49c and closed at 48 3-4@48 7-8c. Local receipts were 123 cars, 10 of contract grade.

Oats were quiet in sympathy with other grains. Business was very light. After opening 1-8c lower at 28 1-2c, December advanced ta 29 1-4c, where it closed. Local receipts, 112 cars.

A good demand from outsiders and fair buying by pit traders caused strength in provisions. Offerings were light even at advanced prices. A strong hog maret and small receipts at the yards were bull factors. The market closed strong with January pork up 15c at $12.55, lard and ribs were each 5@7 1-2c at $7.22 1-2@7.25 and $6.52 1-2@6.55.

Estimated tomorrow: Wheat, 68 cars; corn, 107 cars; oats, 124 cars; hogs, 8,000 head.

The Situation

(From the Boston News Bureau, October 3, 1904.)

It has occurred to the manager of the Boston News Bureau that perhaps it is not too late to tell its thousands of readers why, after thirty years of study in the financial and business affairs of two continents, it was determined, this summer, that the Boston News Bureau should undertake to pass in circulation both the Financial Chroncle and that greater daily chronicle of Wall street, The Wall Street Journal, although the Boston News Bureau suffers the disadanvtage of being published from Boston instead of the coming financia centre of the world, Manhattan island.

The clearet thinking, however, is not always in Wall Street or Lombard Street. * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * * *

There are laws of prices and relations of prices to supply and demand against which all the brains and money of the world, that ca be grouped under any single direction, are powerless in combat.

Seeing ties and times in the affairs of affairs, in the business of business, may be a greater asset than capital.

The Boton News Bureau, in making its "settlement" last Christmas ad in outlining its business policy for this year, marked 1904 as to witness the turn in the financial tides (the return movement to be delayed only by crop disaster or other internal failure), every exteral force from London to Tokio, from the expanding gold prodution of South Africa reaching north to the development of Alaska ad the Canadian Northwest, being in favor of the United States.

One o the greatest all around crops from grass to fruit is being garnered i the United States, and it is time for business men to build. Tere has been no panic in financial affairs. Some of the extravagace, waste and excesses of the frenzied finance of five years ago have ome to the surface.

Thos who have trusted great names in Wall Street, to rob and plunder i the metal markets or in Montana, for their benefit have met witjudgment.

Thoe who have followed hired mountebanks predicting alluring pris for false wares may believe as much or as little as they please c the confessions of the false prophet now crying for revenge in a wierness of words.

Th world will grow better and move forward into the light, irrespecive of how to make darkness visible, or the attempt of financi frenzifiers to raise bank panic mobs from among their victims.

Te age of iron, of steam and of the telegraph is closing. The age osteel, electricity and the telephone has opened.

Te limitation to the new age is wholly one of money. Rebuilding ad re-equipping in the now consolidated railroad systems of the Uited States is limited by the supply of money. When the Penrylvania Railroad system calls up five times as much capital per anum as it disburses in interest and dividends, other railroad systes find their development stimulated by the example, but impede by the lack of the money supply.

he line between the age of iron and the age of steel is that beten the Waldorf and the Astoria. The Waldorf was the last buiing constructed in New York with iron. The Astoria towers abo it with steel construction, but the first was only finished abt eleven years ago. Both have only just been completed with telhone installation in every room. Today every hotel room in Ne York must have its individual telephone through which busine may be transacted with Boston or Chicago. New York and otr metropolitan cities are rebuilding under the age of steel as fa as labor and the money to pay labor can be found.

1904 reflects no 1903 panic, only 1903's lack of money and the fcing of liquidation, or the transfer of securities from weak to singer hands.

The liquidation appears completed. The tendency of money into the United States from the North, from the West and from t East. Japan is shipping it to us; Alaska is shipping it to us, d Europe must ship it to us for her proportion of the cotton crop, which the South must receive $300,000,000 more per annum than is received upon the average of the last ten years of the 19th century.

The earth is producing gold as never before, and so far as can e seen to 1910 must produce it in increasing quantities, and the resent tendency of the largest currents of it is toward the United tates.

With the gold problem settled, liquidation completed, abundant rops gathering, prosperity for this country is inevitable. The railoads have the tonnage and can now raise the money to replace and mprove their rails and equipment.

Hence, the Steel problem of the future is settled, for the railroads consume 40 per cent. of the steel produced in the United States and the United States consumes one-half the steel of the world.

The danger of the future is not one of lower prices for steel.

Therefore, we say now is the time for business men to build.

Therefore, we say we propose to build the Boston News Bureau's circulation to a figure surpassing that ever attained by any American financial newspaper.

If you don't believe in the future of this country don't subscribe to the Boston News Bureau. If you do believe in the future growth of this country the Boston News Bureau can help you every day in the year, for it points out in its 18 condensed columns, without a line of advertising, all places where values are rising or falling, that should interest a man of general business outlook. It unhestitatingly points out pitfalls and dangers wherever seen, and gives the reason for all fluctuations in values, sometimes historically and sometimes in anticipation.

While the Wall Street Journal has so wisely said for many years, "To know values is to foresee prices," the Boston News Bureau has had the courage that no other paper has had in this country to tell of values and of the lack of values in individual properties. It proposes to do this in the future as in the past and to ask no favors beyond the co-operation of honest business men who believe in the growth of their country, and who want to know continuously in what directions it is growing and where, in their investments and business, they can study to obtain the legitimate result of honestly laid plans.

The Boston News Bureau is sent daily to any address in the world for $1 per month or $12 per annum, payable in advance.

TRADE IN STOCKS WAS VERY HEAVY

Practically All the Prominent Stocks Were Advanced Sharply.

TIDE OF MARKET WAS STRONG

Traders Became Very Bold in Their Operations and Dealt in Practically Unlimited Amounts of the Violently Active Stocks.

New York, October 21.—There was a revival of speculative excitement in stocks today. There was some uncertainty in the early market as to whether the midweek reaction had been decisively checked by yesterday's late rally, but as soon as this was seen to be the case the trading broke into great animation. The rise was uneven, one point and then another being effected, but in the course of the day's very large dealings, practically all the important stocks came in for their share of the advance. The tide of the market was so strong that room traders became very bold in their operations and dealt in practically unlimited amounts of the violently active stocks. The dimensions of such operations is indicated by the bid made during the spurt in Pennsylvania for any part of 50,000 shares at 137 1-8. The jump in the local tractions was extened and deal rumors regarding that group were the influence, in spite of official denials of any merger. The renewed advance in Union Pacific after a period of hesitation had as a more substantial basis the consideration of the details of the annual report, which was regarded as testifying to the extraordinary prosperity and strength of that system. These special movement had a far reaching sympathetic effect throughout the list. The United States Steel stocks shared at one time in the day's upward movement, but they were late in getting started and did not hold well. The great volume of the room trading made the profit taking in the last hour quite heavy. The result was an irregular movement during the final hour and a considerable curtailment of best prices, the leading western stocks losing practically all of their gains. The closing, however, was about steady.

Bonds were firm; total sales, par value, $6,705,000.

United States bonds were unchanged on call.

Money on call steady at 1 1-2@2 per cent, closing bid and offered at 1 3-4; time loans easy and dull; 60 days 3 per cent; 90 days and six months 3 1-2; prime mercantile paper 4 1-2@5 per cent.

Sterling exchange firm with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85.95@4.86 for demand and at $4.83.75@4.83.80 for 60-day bills; posted rates $4.84 1-2 and $4.86 1-2@4.88; commercial bills $4.83 3-8 @4.83 1-2.

COTTON—The decline of 9 points today hardly represents the feeling which has prevailed. The continued free offerings by interior holders, the large weekly receipts and heavy accumulations at ports and interior towns, have caused a decidedly pessimistic sentiment to reign. Further decline, however, was checked by the steadiness shown by Liverpool. The excellent business in Manchester and buying for continental account were the main causes of the strength abroad. Exporters and spinners seem to be keeping out of the spot markets, and the pressure to sell has resulted in declines of 1-8c or more throughout the south. There is no doubt, however, that American mills, especially in the south, are watching the decline closely, and on the first sign of a break to it they will be found free buyers. Nine and one-half cents in New York means 9c in the interior, and it is probable that as prices approach that point, farmers will be less disposed to sell. No matter how much cotton may be picked and now on hand, producers have sold enough to make them easy in finances and are not absolutely forced to part with their holdings, so that should prices weaken too much, a halt in the selling may result. There was some killing frost last night in Mississippi, and light frost generally in the central belt, but these had no effect on the market. The Florida storm has moved up the Atlantic coast, but has dwindled in intensity. There has been heavy rainfalls of 2 to 3 inches within a hundred miles of the coast, but as the rains were not accompanied by wind, no damage has been reported. Fall River reports say the goods market is strengthening, and it is rumored that manufacturers are likely to make an attempt to reopen the mills about November 1. The closing tonight is at the lowest today, and 9 points below yesterday. Liverpool is due to come 3 to 4 lower tomorrow.

to whether the recent reactionary spirit had run its course, but the development of further strength in Ontario and Western and the local traction stocks was so pronounced, however, that before the first hour was over rising prices again were the feature. Enormous dealings in Ontario and Western carried it up 4 3-8, and it closed with a reaction of less than 2 points. The semi-official announcement by us that control had passed to the New Haven railroad under either guarantee of dividend or a at offering of a fixed price to all stockholders, was the motive for the advance, and the transaction was interpreted as beneficial to the entire anthracite situation, and Delaware and Hudson, Reading and Eries made important gains. Later in the day Rock Island rose over 2 per cent, and there were sharp advances through the railroad list. Denials of any immediate local traction deal failed to check the buoyant speculation in those issues. Metropolitan Street Railway rose 3 1-2 and Manhattan 4. People's Gas sold up over 2 per cent. Other strong features were Electric stocks, Smelters, Colorado Fuel and Iron, American Locomotive issues and Virginia-Carolina. The breadth of the market naturally permitted large profit taking sales, under the effects of which there was a rather sharp reaction in the last half hour. The tendency in the final dealings, however, again was toward recovery, and the market closed active, excited and strong. Wabash issues are too low comparatively and should turn.

World's Visible Supply of Cotton.

New Orleans, October 21.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, made up from special cable and telegraphic advices, compares the figures of this week with last week, last year and the year before.

It shows an increase for the week just closed of 274,601, against an increase of 273,616 last year and an increase of 164,775 year before last.

The total visible is 2,690,892, against 2,416,291 last week, 2,112,998 last year and 2,443,016 year before last.

Of this the total of American cotton is 2,208,892, against 1,917,291 last week, 1,617,998 last year and 2,000,016 year before last, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 482,000, against 499,000 last week, 495,000 last year and 443,000 year before last.

The total world's visible supply of cotton, as above, shows an increase compared with last week as 274,601, an increase compared with last year of 574,894, and an increase compared with year before last of 247,876.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton, as above, there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 1,308,000, against 1,106,000 last year and 1,157,000 year before last; in Egypt 90,000, against 67,000 last year and 84,000 year before last; in India 205,000, against 199,000 last year and 182,000 year before last; and in the United States 1,088,000, against 741,000 last year and 1,020,000 year before last.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

COTTON—The pressure of cotton upon the market during the day was simply overpowering. An attempt was made to stem the decline by the New Orleans operator now here, but the effort was futile, and the offerings increased with the buying. The crop itself appears to be the irresistible factor—the power that works for lower prices. Whatever may be the ultimate outcome, now the bales tell. Covering orders temporarily steadied prices after the early speculative effort, but with their filling weakness again prevailed. The demand was scattering and the close marked the lowest prices of the day. Speculatively there is danger in an oversold market. Actually, the supply exceeds the demand.

The Howell Jones Co.

COTTON—The market for cotton futures in the local market opened steady in tone today with prices 2 to 3 points higher. This was a result of little better cables from the English market than expected, but the bearish sentiment prevails among the locals, and when they began their daily tactics the prices began declining slowly, finally reaching a net loss of 12 points. But on the lower levels the quiet buying which has been going on from day to day checked the downward tendency for the time being, and prices remained steady around the lower figures. The weather conditions are still reported to be quite favorable, although somewhat colder in most sections. The movement, however, continues quite liberal, and stocks are said to be heavy at the principal interior towns. In some places stocks are excessive, but the amount of cotton for sale is not what it should be under the circumstances, which, in part, substantiates the reports that the holders of cotton are unwilling to sell their cotton at the present prices. Reports from spot centers gave a fair report, with prices relatively steady at the decline. The insight figures for the week were quite large, being 563,632, against 443,625 in 1903, and 449,701 in 1902. Port receipts for the day were figured at 60,000, against 57,790 last year. At the close there was an unwillingness on the part of the bulls to get into the market with aggressiveness, and the indications point to a somewhat lower range of prices in the next few days.

WHEAT—Bear interests felt encouraged in the wheat pit today on account of the heavy Argentine shipments, and the rather weak foreign markets. A dull flour market and talk of accumulated supplies at many points also added to the uneasiness of holders, while the Manitoba crop estimates were increased somewhat. The receipts were fair, while the shipments were only moderate, and further increases in the visible supply were suggested. However, the Australian news was bullish, indicating an average wheat yield of only half of that of last year. Much low grade wheat was said to be coming to hand in the northwest, and export interests were disposed to figure that in the end the foreigners will have to come into this market and buy, irrespective of prices. On the lower levels there was a fair amount of support, but the buying generally was rather nervous. The Armour movements were closely watched, but little was learned, and pending a definite announcement as to the real position of Armour following, it is likely that feverish markets will continue.

CORN—The corn market was moderately active, but professionals generally did the bulk of the business. There was further liquidation in the December option, and this selling was quite a feature. Certain shorts bought in on the decline, since it was shown that off-grades of corn were selling in the cash market at from 2 to 5c over the December price. The country offerings were fair. The export business was slow and the Argentine shipments were quite extensive. The Argentine advices were rather bearish. European developments, however, still suggested a serious shortage on feed stuffs on the other side.

OATS—The oats market moved sympathetically with other cereals.

PROVISIONS—The smaller hog receipts and firmer yard prices had a good effect on provisions, but on the better levels there were increased offerings.

L. J. Anderson & Co.

COTTON—The record breaking movement of cotton into sight, despite the fact that reports are daily received that the farmers are holding back on a large scale for 10c, has been used successfully by the bears for the past few days. The heavy movement is a decidedly bearish influence, and so long as it continues cotton may be expected to decline, as the bulls have nothing in sight to offset facts. The insight figures since the first of September show an increase over the same time last year of 1,000,000 bales, and it is claimed farmers are just beginning to show signs of weakness. The amount brought into sight during the week aggregated 563,632, against 443,625 last year, 449,701 the year before and 533,984 in 1901. Total since September 1 2,980,950, against 1,971,893 last year, 2,575,004 the year before and 2,085,334 in 1901. Port receipts 61,807, against 70,658 last week and 57,790 last year. Exports today 77,441 bales. The market closed steady 9 to 12 points lower. Spot generally show declines today.

WHEAT—Liberal Argentine shipments and lower foreign markets resulted in weakness in the early trading in wheat, December showing a loss of 3-8 to 7-8c at the opening at $1.13 7-8 to 1.14 1-4. May was down 1-4 to 3-4c at $1.12 7-8. December sold off to $1.13 7-8 and May $1.12 3-4. Later, on advances in Minneapolis and Duluth, and bullish news from the northwest as to the crop movement, a sharp advance took place, a good demand from the shorts in the late session closing the market strong. December and May showing 3-4c advance at $1.15 3-8 to 1.15 1-2 and $1.14 1-4 to 1.14 3-8, respectively. Primary receipts 1,036,000 bushels, against 1,041,000 last year. Shipments 793,000 bushels, against 674,300 last year. Clearances 19,000 bushels wheat and flour. Exports for the week, according to Bradstreet's, amount to 1,066,000 bushels wheat and flour.

CORN—Continued liquidation of December resulted in an easier tone in the corn market in the early session. The early weakness in wheat was also a bearish factor. December opened 1-8 to 3-8c lower at 48 to 48 1-4c, sold off 47 7-8, reacted to 49c and closed at 48 3-4c. The advance was in sympathy with wheat's late strength. Primary receipts 239,429 bushels, against 543,000 last year. Shipments 309,700 bushels, against 474,100 last year.

OATS—A firm tone prevailed in the oats market. There was a scarcity of offerings and the strength in wheat and corn was reflected in this market. At the close December was 1-2c higher at 29 1-4c.

PROVISIONS—The product market was irregular. The tone, however, was much better on a slight advance in hogs and light receipts. At the close January was 5 to 15c higher.

THE TRADE SITUATION.

New York, October 21.—Bradstreet's tomorrow will say:

"Good feeling, in some instances closely approaching optimism, dominates the general trade situation, but the under tone is withal one of conservatism, and there is a general desire to avoid overtrading. Past reports of good wholesale trade are reflected in an increased speeding of the wheels of industry, but, except in portions of west and southwest, where cool weather had helped retail distribution, and in the south, where good prices for cotton induce free marketing of the crop, there is a disposition to regard the weather as too warm for best results for final distribution. Railway earnings turned the corner in August, the roads of the country showing a gain of fraction of 1 per cent in gross and 5 per cent in net over 1903. Collections have continued to hold the improvement noted last week, being especially good at the south.

"Business failures for the week ending October 20 number 227, against 216 in the like week in 1903."

Dun's Review.

New York, October 21.—R. G. Dun Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade tomorrow will say:

"Trade reports are more encouraging each week, while the feeling of optimism regarding the future is becoming g[illegible] With its customary disposition to [illegible] count commercial prosperity, Wall st[illegible] has lifted the average price of the [illegible] most active railway shares above [illegible] for the first time since May last [illegible] Manufacturing plants steadily inc[illegible] their output, a particularly grati[illegible] feature of the week being the large [illegible] nage of steel purchased by the rail[illegible] and the advanced prices for pig [illegible] suggest that the depression in th[illegible] dustry has run its course.

"Textile mills are doing more [illegible] even the New England cotton [illegible] reporting less procrastination [illegible] buyers. Jobbing and wholesale t[illegible] spring goods make a better com[illegible] with last year's volume, and cur[illegible] tail distribution of merchandise [illegible] creasing. Payments are still so[illegible] irregular, yet there are compa[illegible] few complaints. Foreign trade [illegible] port for the last week shows a[illegible] $2,158,275 in imports over thos[illegible] same week in 1903, but a loss o[illegible] 275 in exports. All railways [illegible] for the first half of October [illegible] average gain of 8.6 per cent [illegible] year's earnings.

"Revival of interest in finished [illegible] practically all departments of [illegible] industry have come so suddenly [illegible] cite particular comment, but [illegible] surprising, considering the enor[illegible] nage under consideration for [illegible] months held back alone by t[illegible] of buyers.

"Hides have gained a still st[illegible] sition and there is a wholeso[illegible] at leading leather markets.

"Conditions are steadily gr[illegible] satisfactory at the woolen m[illegible] for the great strength of the [illegible] rial.

"Failures this week numb[illegible] the United States, against 2[illegible] and 39 in Canada, compare[illegible] year ago."

"It sounds that way!"
Is that what you say? Well, yes, "Loose-leaf" does suggest loose ends and a general mix-up, and the adoption of a "System" smacks of revolution. But it is only in seeming—any part of the "Loose-leaf" system can be used profitably in connection with your business, without a hitch anywhere. Of course, the more you have of a good thing the better. Can't we couple up a Loose-leaf ledger for you to-day? Let's talk it over, anyhow.
